One side full of 537 energetic youngsters learning small bits of what the outside world is like, having fun being kids.

The other side filled with 514 older, more mature youngsters, growing quickly in thought and action, getting bigger glimpses of the world.

These two combine to form one totally unique school. Unlike a lot of schools, we have the privilege of being THE WHOLE THING.

These are the Good Times

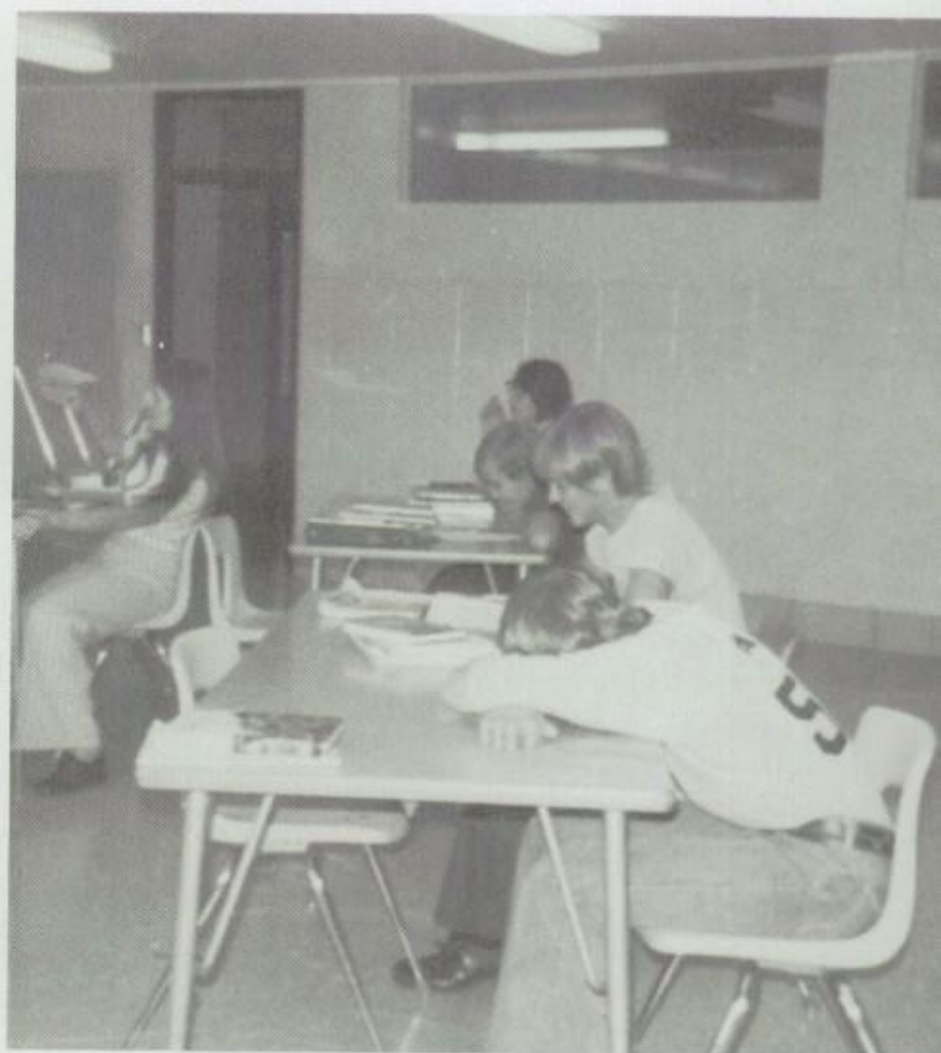

We post guards now at CHS.

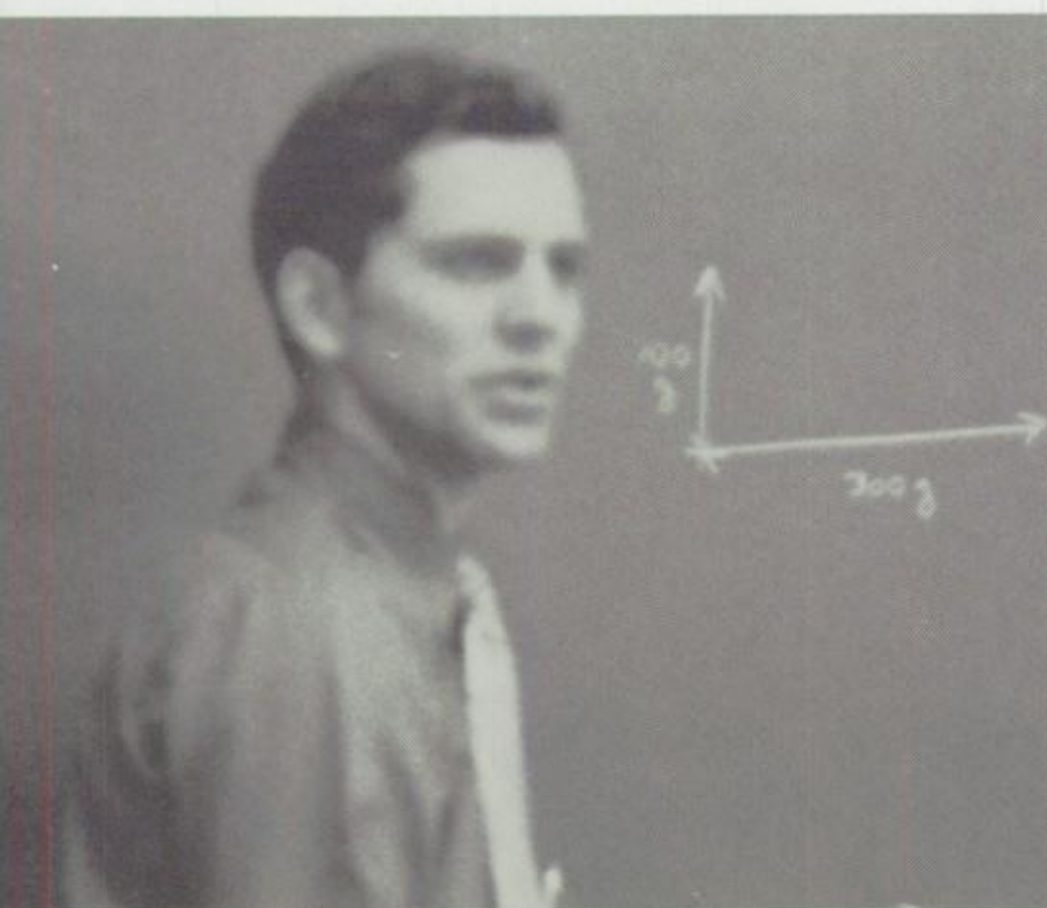

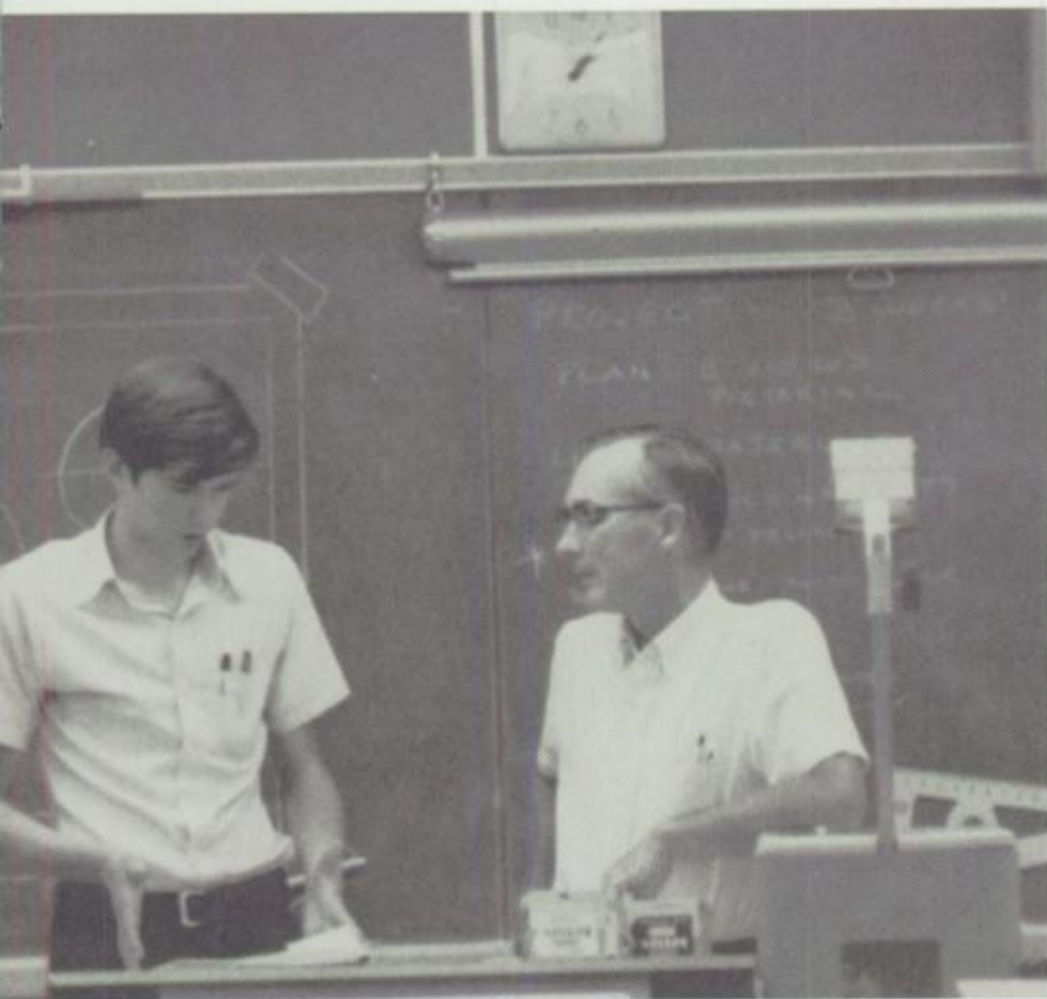

Mark, you're a real protector.

Girls, what's so interesting down there?

Wake up, Gary N., German class has started.

Women's Lib At CHS

The girls can be seen not only on the track team, but also they are now appearing on the football field.

Although they may be involved in masculine activities, they are still quite feminine.

Slug 'em, Robin!

I said that right, didn't I?

Get back in the lamp.

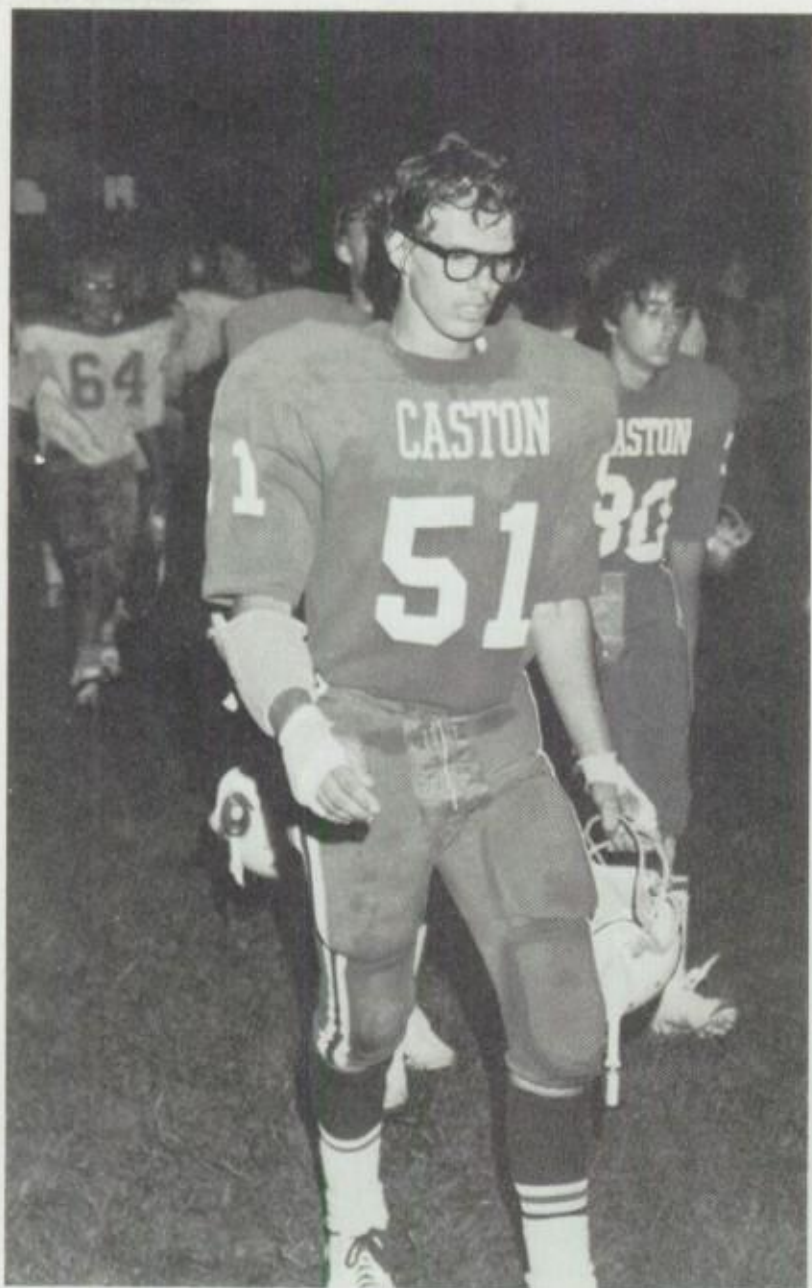

Smiling proudly, the new SSS officers take over.

How 'bout big win!

Male Activities At C.H.S

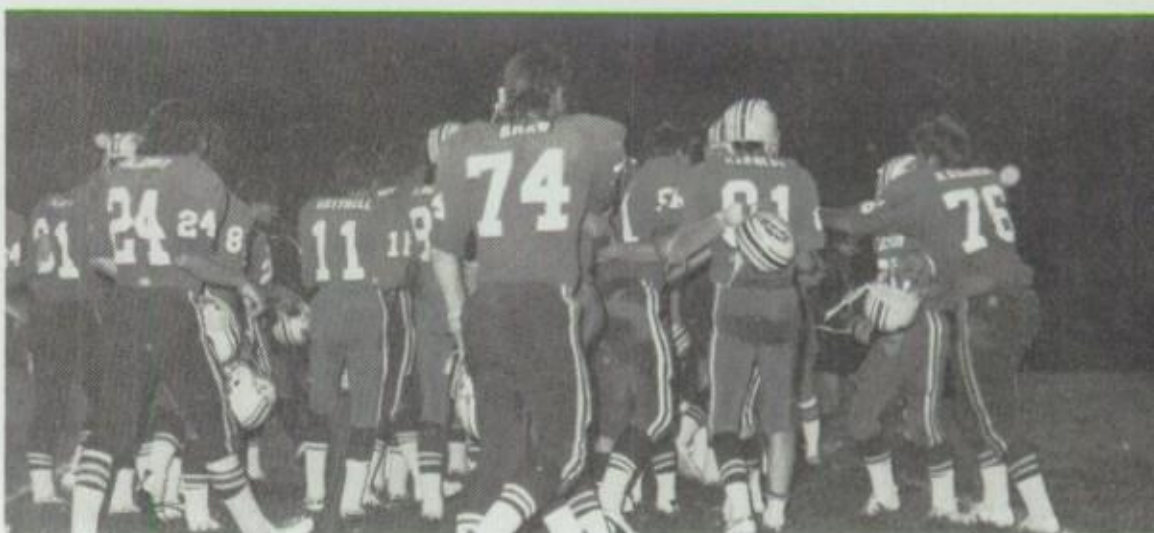

Guys here at CHS are what make the women libbers stay quite feminine. They show their talents in the many sports, but also in the classroom and announcing at games.

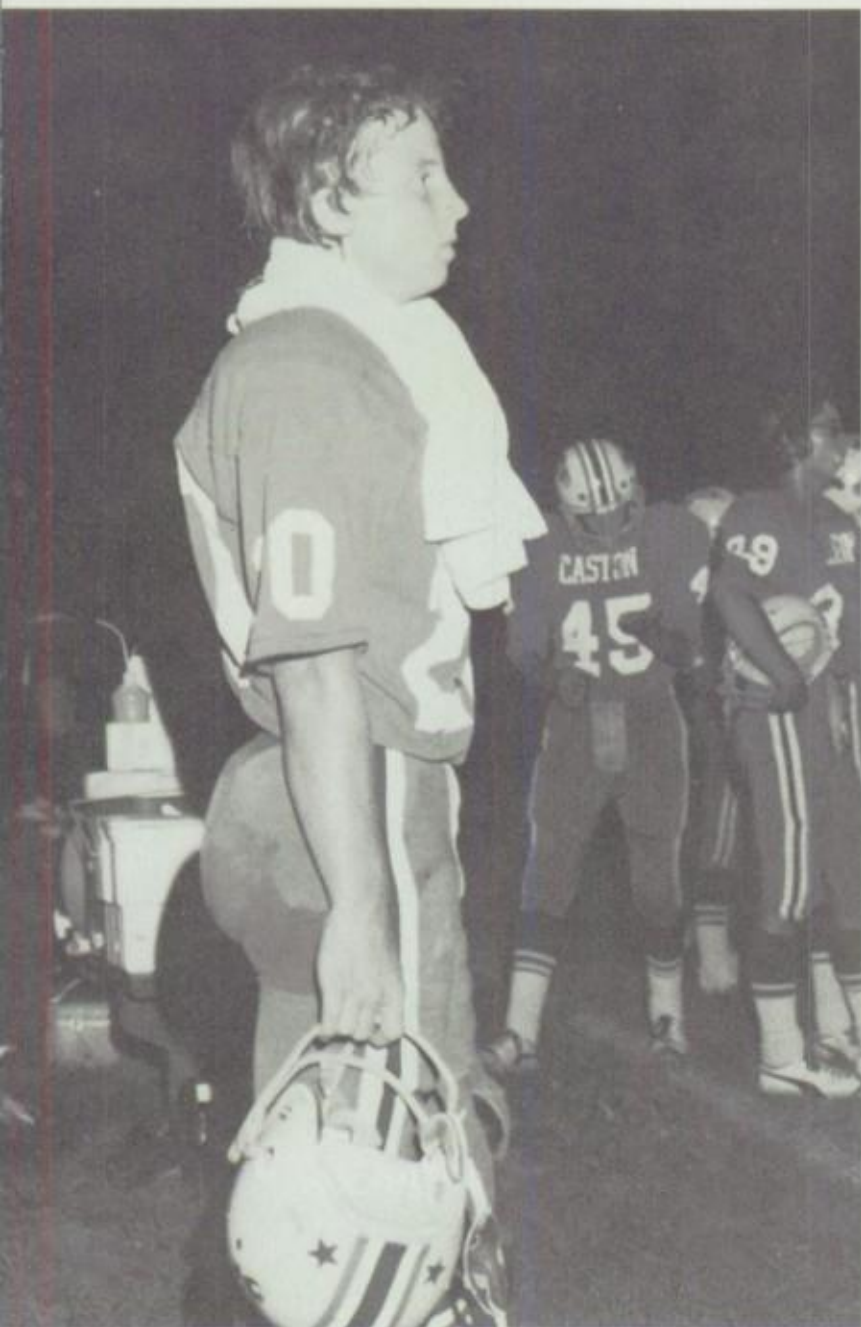

Top: A sad ending for our Comets, as shown in the faces of our players.

Top: Great concentration in the eyes of the sportscasters.

Above: Another victory chalked up to the Comets.

Bob watches intensely.

The physics students are ready to fly their homemade airplanes.

Our Comets travel onward to victory.

Warming up for the coming game.

Fore!

Top: Dancing in the mist of the moonlight gives a dreamy feeling.

Left: With the full devotion of our junior class sponsors, Mr. & Mrs. Smith, the 1973 prom was a marvelous success.

Sail With Us On A Moonlight Cruise

Guided by the light on April 28, the juniors, seniors, and their dates, along with the faculty members and guests, arrived to take a beautiful Moonlight Cruise. A delightful banquet was served only as a start of the exciting evening. The senior wills were read and the juniors read their prophecy of what the future held for the seniors.

The couples then boarded the extravagantly decorated Cotton Queen to begin the Moonlight Cruise. They first walked over a wooden bridge and then through a mysterious maize. There was a fanciful sweet shop and a dimly lit bar. Also to go along with this there were gayly dressed table servers in red and white striped vests and black derbies. Music was provided by the Flora Convo and the Barber Shop Quartet performed during the band break. Dancing continued until midnight; then the couples proceeded to the Logansport State Theater to see a movie. After the movie there was bowling at Bowlmor and breakfast at the Holiday Inn.

Just at dawn, all tired but happy couples made their way home with the memories of the 1973 prom lingering sweetly in their sleepy heads.

School . . . it isn't all that bad!

Fanny Brice Pays The Price

Whether it's an ugly duckling who becomes a glamorous star or a flower seller who learns how to speak like a lady, the Cinderella story has always had a special appeal in the musical theatre. FUNNY GIRL, based on the early life of Fanny Brice, is a Cinderella story—but with a difference. The ugly duckling is never transformed into a beautiful swan, nor is triumph over adversity the main plot. It is really the story of the meeting of two worlds. The world of Fanny, who was hard working, and the world of Nick Arnstein, the man she loved who was a gambler and opportunist.

The play was a huge success under the direction of Mr. Berdine and Miss Dillon. Everyone had a great time, but of course, were glad when it was over.

Life At Caston

Students Are The Spice of Life

Meet Me In St. Louis

MEET ME IN ST. LOUIS was a three act comedy involving four attractive sisters all blazing with excitement over the wonderful World Fair that was about to open in St. Louis. A big part of the older girls' excitement was that they would be enjoying the fair with boys that were beginning to be important in their lives. The youngest sister's main concern was to sneak up on a crabby woman next door and bite her leg!

The girls were also in a state about the love life of their only brother whom they suspect of ditching his sweet home-town girl for a snob from the East. In the midst of the sisters' humorous maneuvers to rule (or ruin) their brother's new romance, Father finally broke in with his announcement. He'd been offered a better job in New York! This would mean leaving their home in St. Louis and missing the fair!

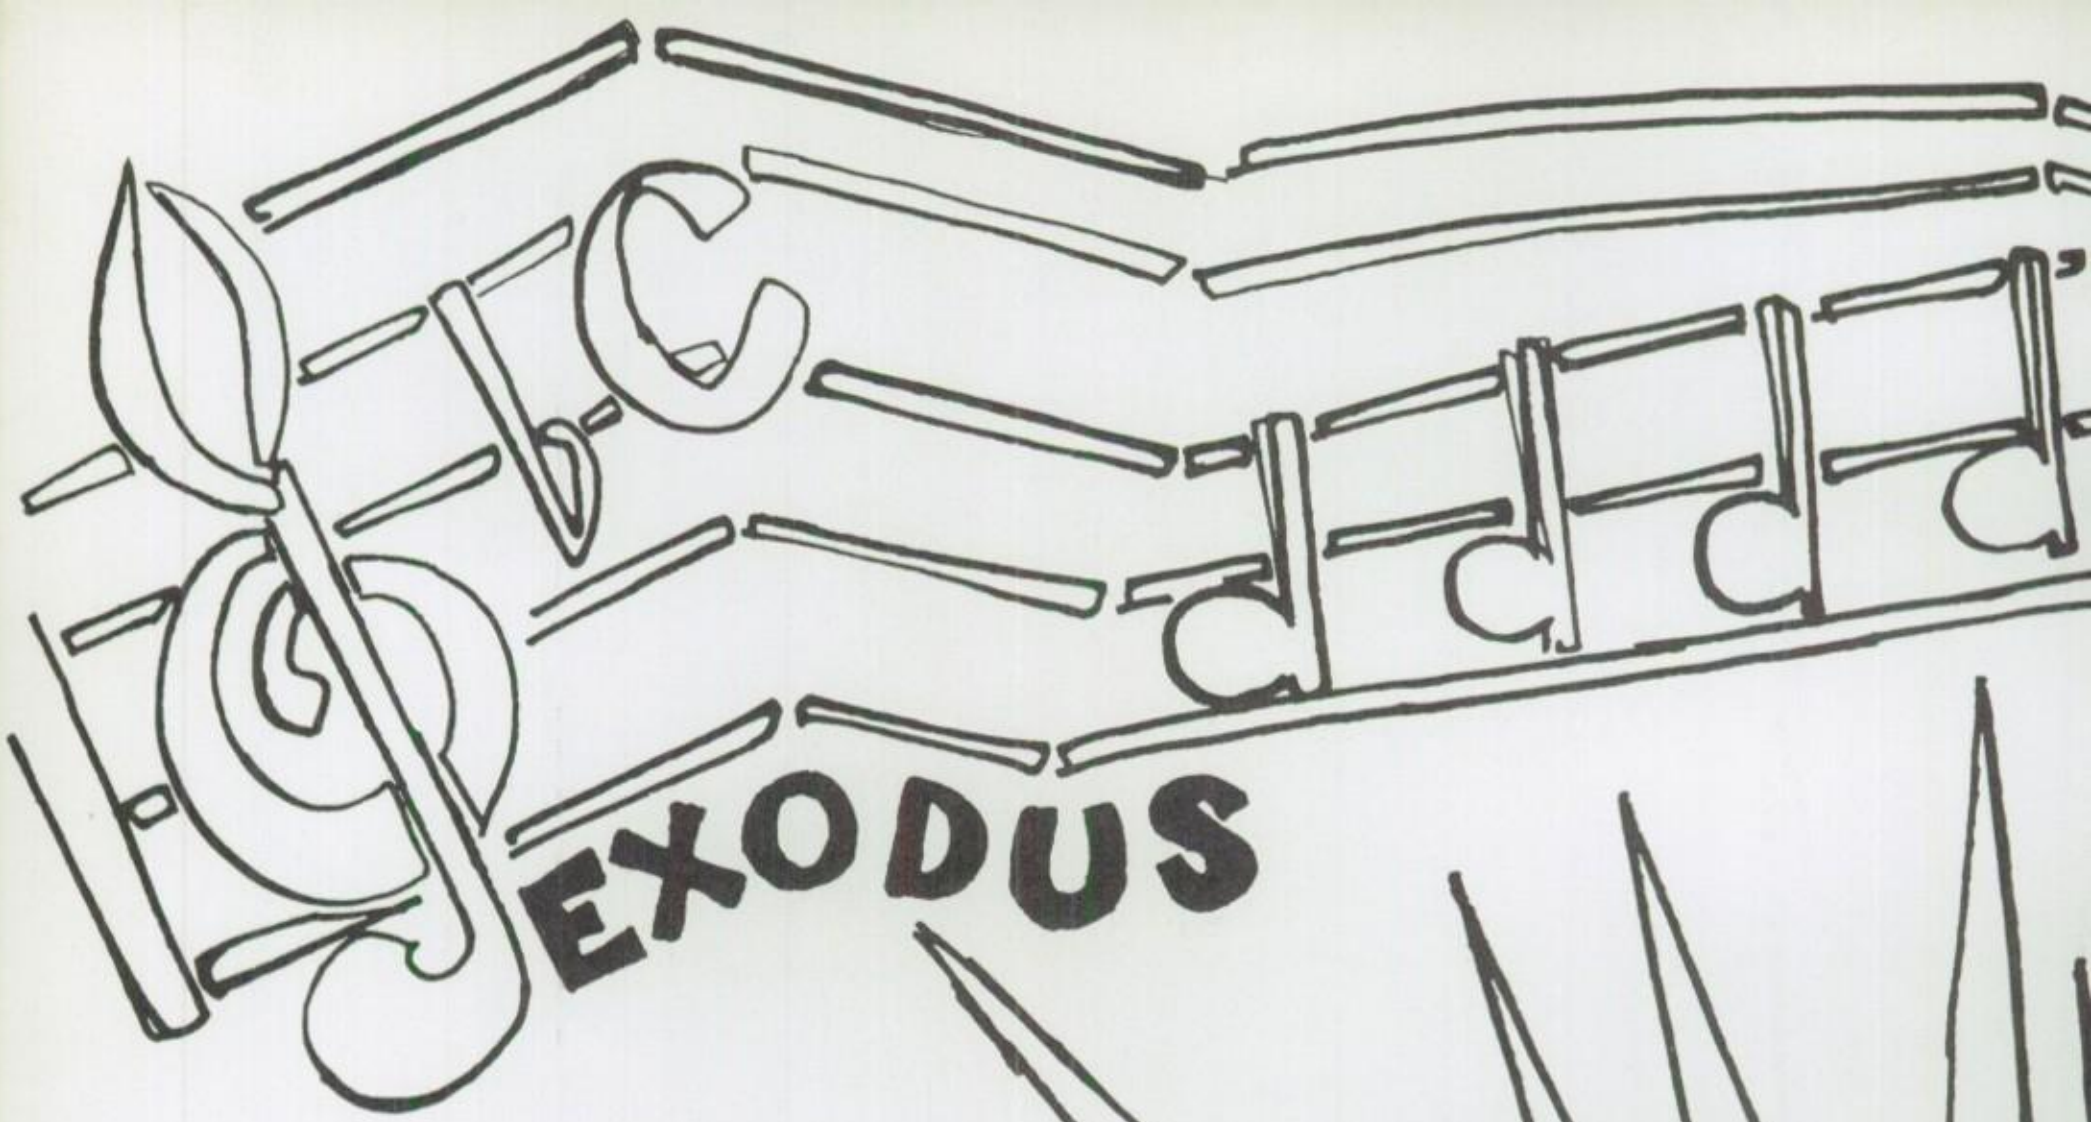

At this time the girls united for action. Although their strategy almost landed the family in jail, they persisted in their battle to stay where they had been so happy. In a dramatic reversal, they finally won through to a solution that not only got Father the better job right there in St. Louis but also straightened out the romantic complications.

Fellowship Of Christian Athletes And French Club

The French Club held a bake sale and a sock hop after a home basketball game. They also had their annual celebration of the Mardi Gras. With the money the club made, the group treated the seniors to a night out at a French restaurant.

During the past year, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes arranged for a Tournament of Champions. All students and faculty could compete for trophies.

1st row: M. Blackburn, J. Troutman, D. Sommers, M. Skinner, T. Hudkins, 2nd row: N. Garner, J. Dague, P. Ulerick, G. Wiles, J. Swanson. 3rd row: D. Sommers, J. Troutman, T. Wiles, R. Gearhart, D. Zartman. 4th row: R. Lewis, C. Richter, S. Hensley, M. Gundrum, R. Sommers.

A party welcoming new members was held at the school in October. The Fasching party in February was a great success. Prizes for costumes featuring most beautiful, most original, dumbest, and weirdest were awarded. The annual trip to Hans Haus, a German restaurant in South Bend attracted many members. This restaurant featured German meats, bread, and desserts.

This year's German club was at its highest membership level.

Drama

Things were hectic in the spring preparing for the musical. This past year's presentation was "Hello Dolly," directed by Miss Warner and Mr. Berdine.

The Drama Club also presented a series of one-act plays in February.

Near the end of the school year, the Drama Club dined out, and awards were presented at the close of the evening.

Daddy Date Night, candy sales, the trip to Riley Hospital and other such activities were some of the events sponsored by the Sunshine Society during the year. The motto "Make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others," was also carried out through the year. The girls spread goodwill and happiness to all as they visited the Senior Citizens. The Ideal Ladies Tea ended the joyful year.

The Future Farmers of America was a very active club. This year they sold popcorn, went to judging contests, held a pest drive, and attended the National Convention in Kansas City.

Members were also entered in competition for proficiency awards in livestock production, crop production, F.F.A. Creed contest, public speaking contest and chapter meeting contest. They gave agriculture mechanics and swine production demonstrations and had two seniors, Doug Emery and Charlie Williams, apply for the Hoosier Farmer Degree.

This fine club was under the leadership of Weldon Hicks, agriculture teacher. The Future Farmers of America chapter also played many other chapters in basketball.

Women in sports—that's the name of the game. Basketball, volleyball, and track were participated in by Caston's girls, and they became very proficient in them.

The coat check was the main project of the Girls Athletic Association. They also sponsored a live-band dance after a basketball game.

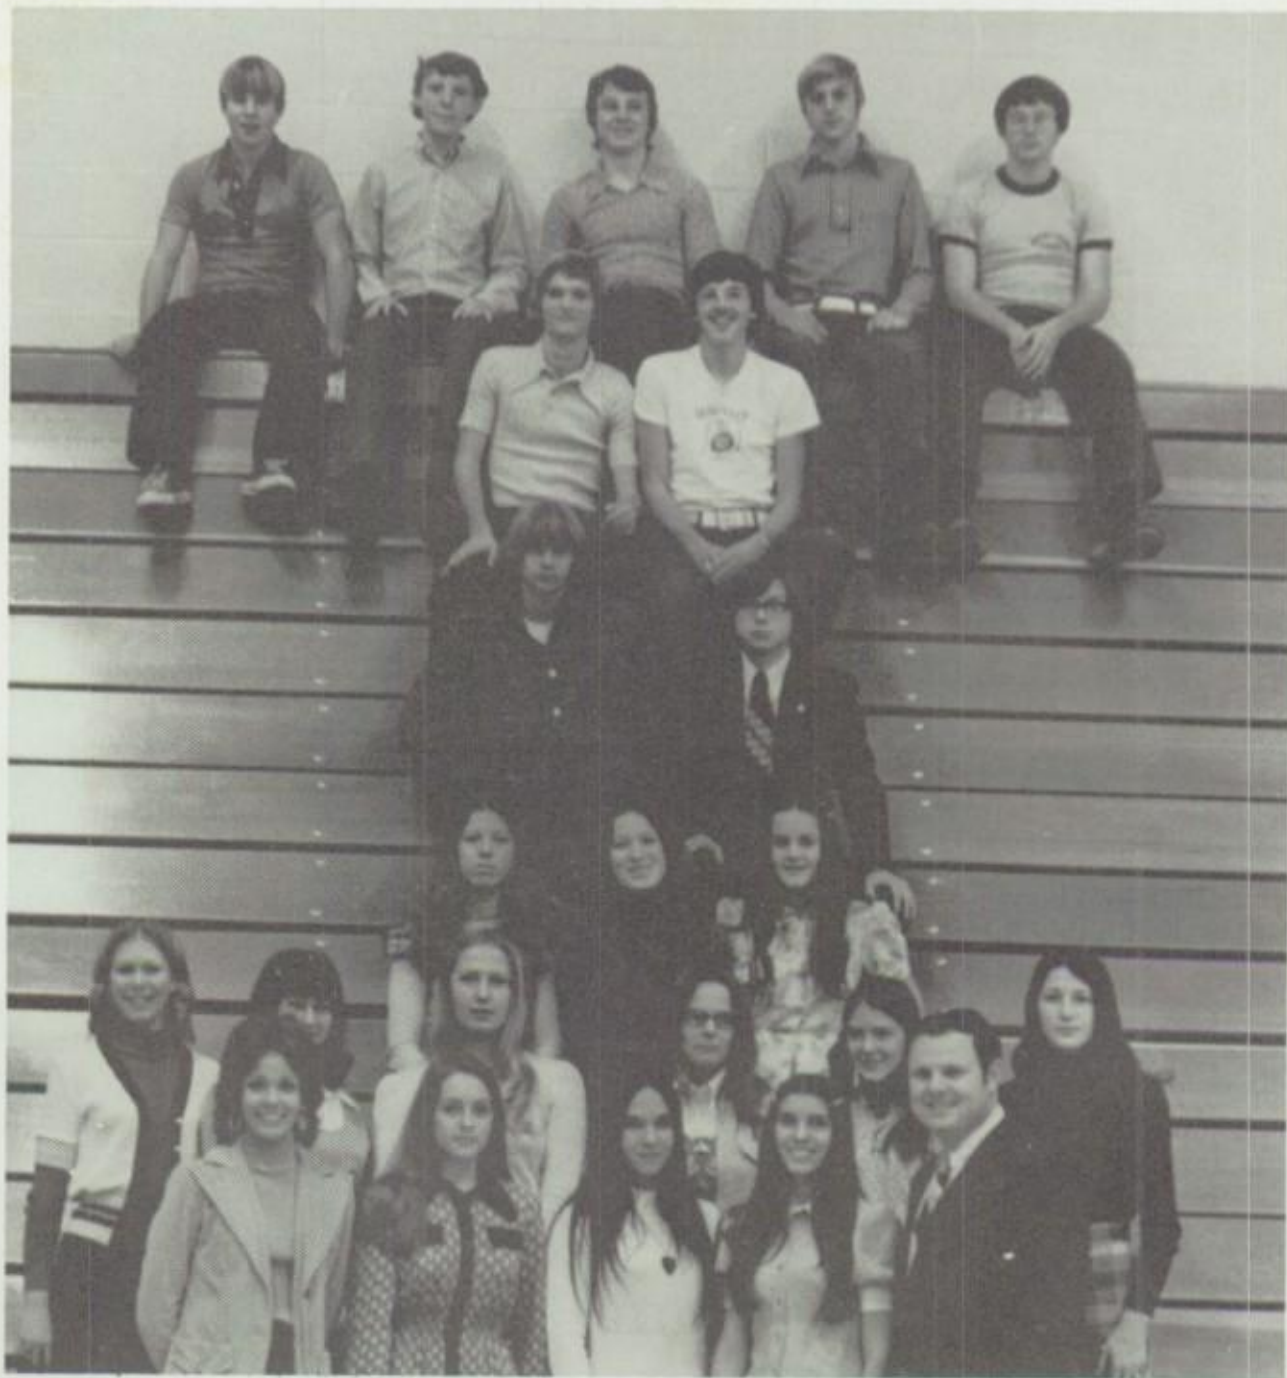

Malt Machine Is A Success

Under the leadership of Cindy Rouch, the first girl elected student body president, some changes were made.

First, an additional five minutes was added to the noon hour, thus shortening the afternoon classes.

Also with student council approval, vanilla and chocolate malts were sold during the noon hour.

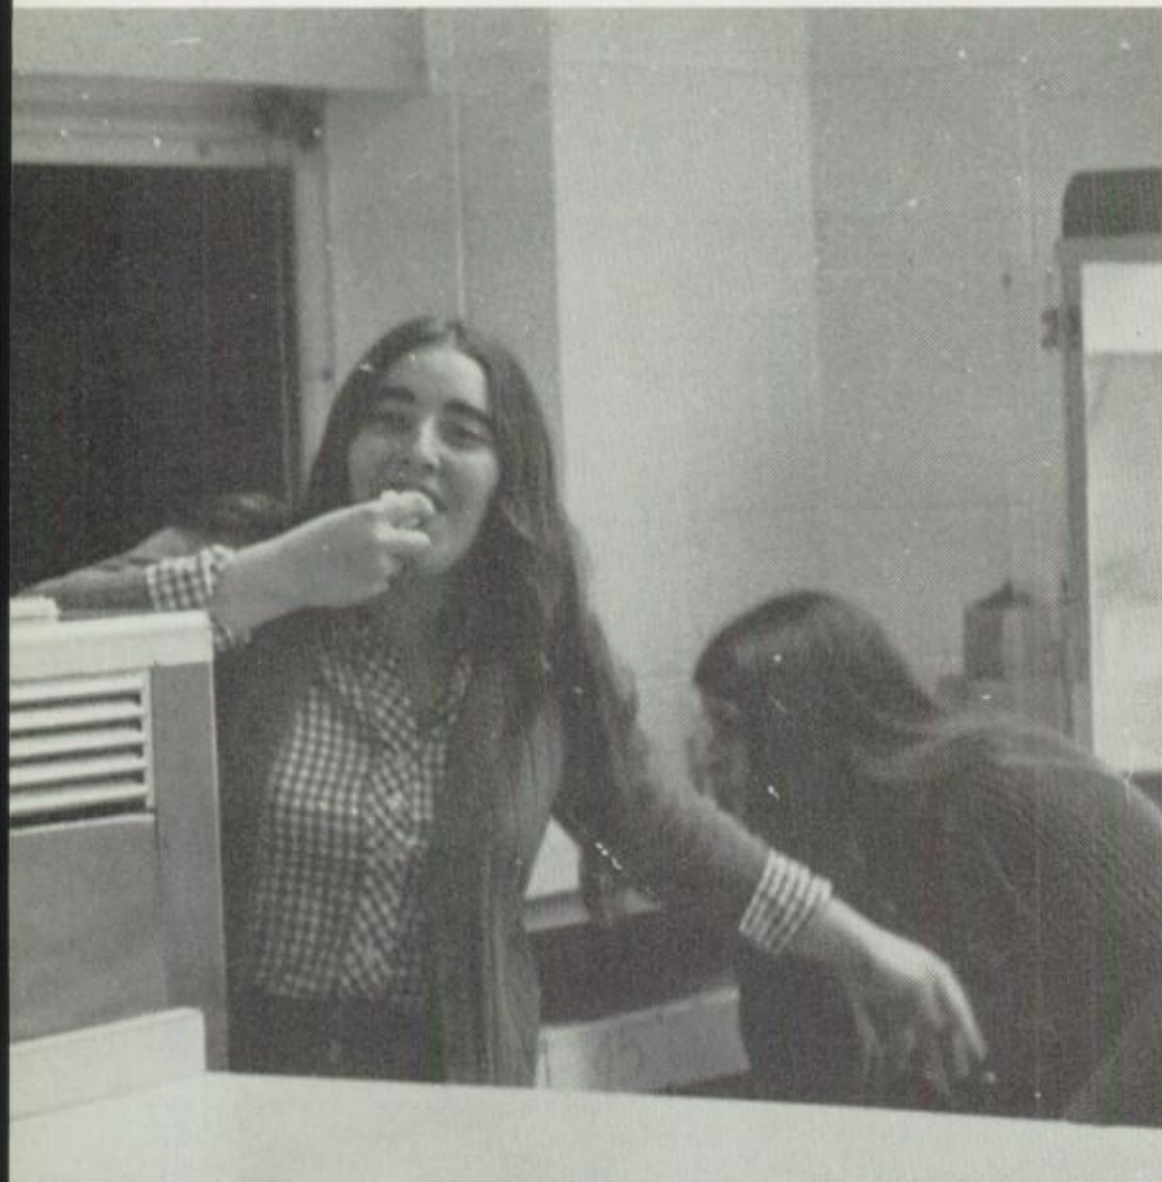

1st row: C. Rouch, G. Davidson, J. Russell, S. Olinger, Mr. Hattery. 2nd row: P. Fields, P. Hines, J. Montgomery, S. Horn, K. Scott, K. Harness. 3rd row: K. Field, L. Montgomery, R. Under the new leadership of Margaret Petry, the Art Club remained active.

In the fall of the year they visited Manchester College and heard an art professor as he talked about art skills. In February the Sweetheart Dance was sponsored by the group.

Librarians and Aides Help Many Students

1st row: G. DeWitt, B. Bockover, G. Burns, S. Douglass, M. Wray. 2nd row: S. Townsend, G. Scott, L. Edwards, J. Troutman. 3rd row: R. Gundrum, J. Bechdol, R. Lewis, B. Grable, Miss Watson.

Down the hall and to the left is the quietest place in the school. You wonder why it's so quiet—well, it's all those librarians in there.

They clean shelves, sort books, check books in and out, and are always there when you need them to help you find a book.

The audio-visual boys run projectors all over the school so you can see movies. They work on all kinds of equipment in that little room.

National Honor Society was involved in many activities during the year, including initiation, election of officers, and a cake raffle at a basketball game. All in all, it was a very hard-working group of students.

Students wanting to help in classrooms or wishing to learn more about teaching were encouraged to join the Future Teachers of America.

The members of this organization helped some teachers in their work as students learned more about the job of teaching.

The students were allowed to use one free period toward exploratory teaching in an educational area about which they wished to learn more.

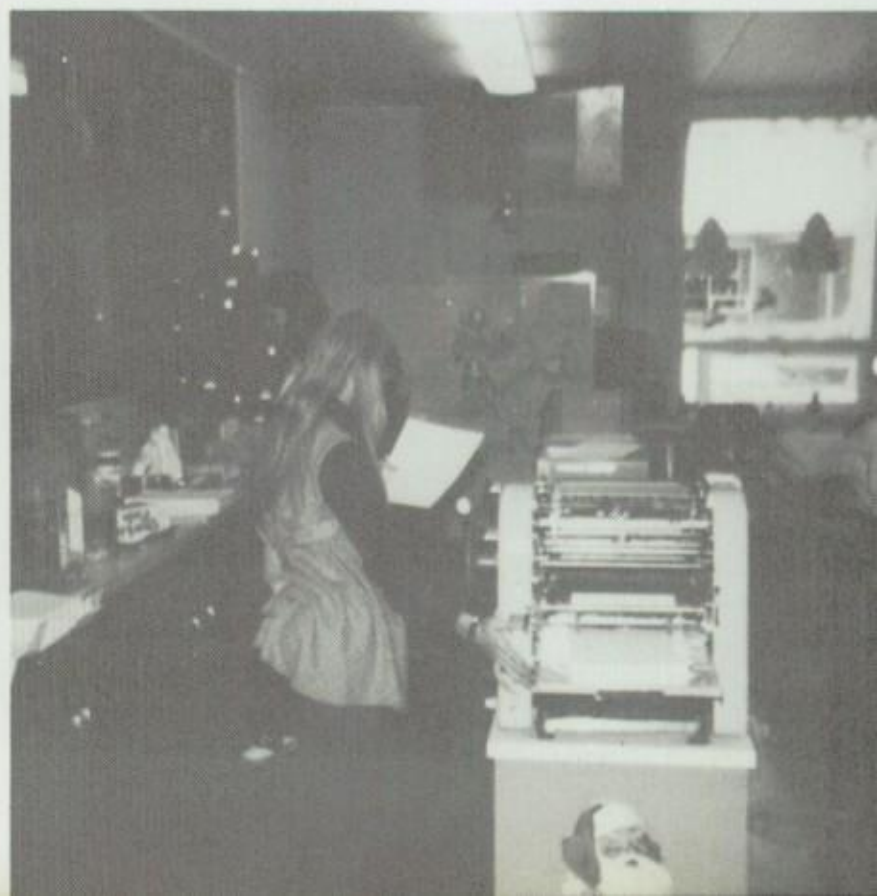

1st row: Mrs. Brown, P. Miller, J. Montgomery, D. Sommers, D. Becker, D. Thompson, P. Lemmon, B. Bruce, Mrs. Ulerick. 2nd row: D. Moss, D. Gunter, R. McDowell, J. Crippen, J. Holt, L. Button, P.

Comments Staff Works Hard To Improve Newspaper

Struggling to keep up with press-time deadlines, the COMMENTS staff produced bi-weekly issues of the student newspaper.

Much student-faculty interest was aroused this year due to lively letters to the editor and debatable opinion columns.

Exodus Staff Spends Many Long Hours At Hard Work

Sitting: Mrs. Ulerick, B. Bechdol, M. Bonnell, B. Bryant, C. Graham, P. Hanks, J. Crippen, C. Horn, R. Bookwalter, C. Seehase. Standing: D. Cameron, D. Hoch, J. Hapner, B. Tam, G. Burch, C. Walsh, K. Field, J. Bechdol, G. Scott, M. St. Clair, D. Sommers, L. Montgomery, M. Skinner.

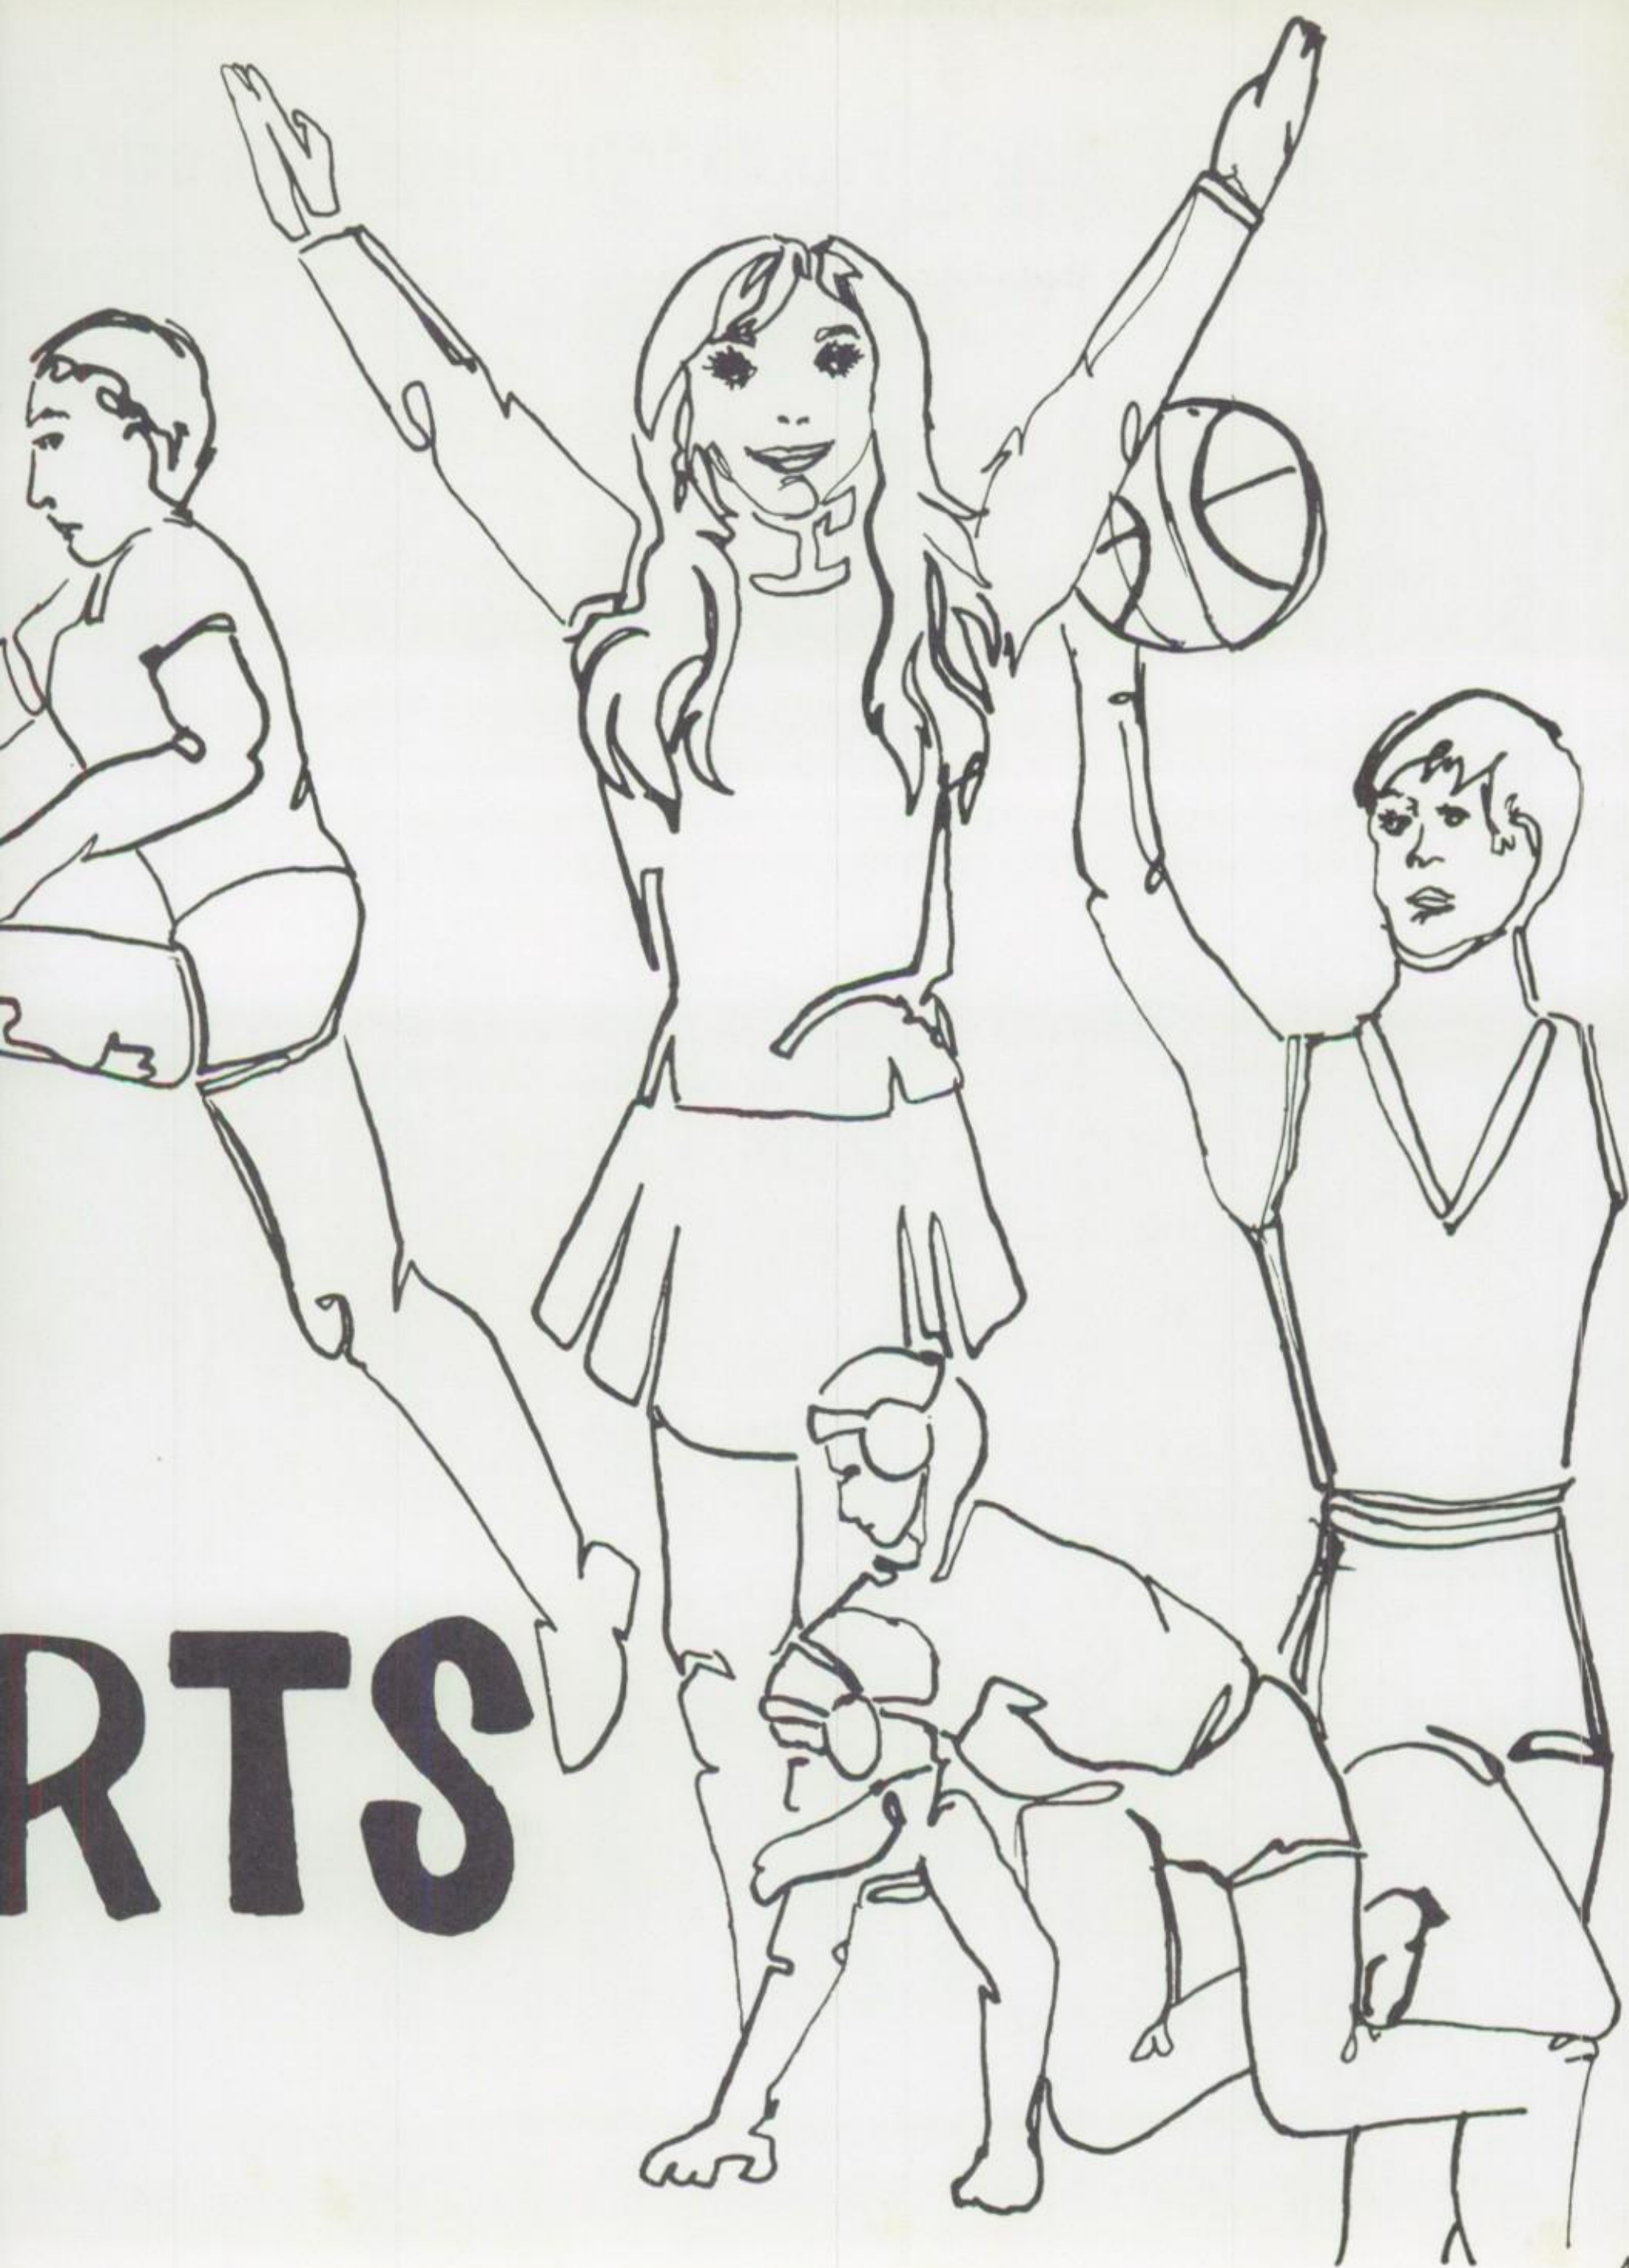

"The Whole Thing" was this year's theme, meaning that the elementary, junior high, and senior high school are combined together in one building.

A lot of hard work and long hours were put into the annual—just ask the staff.

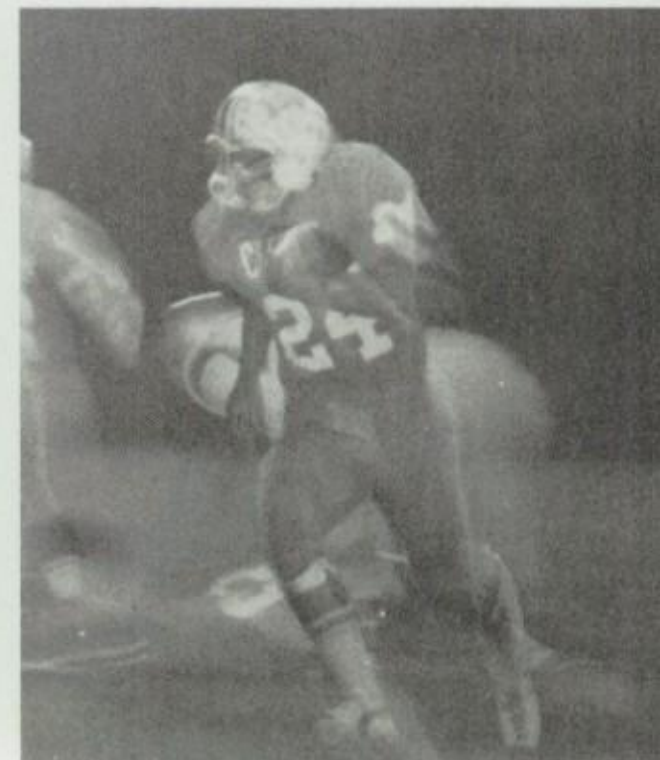

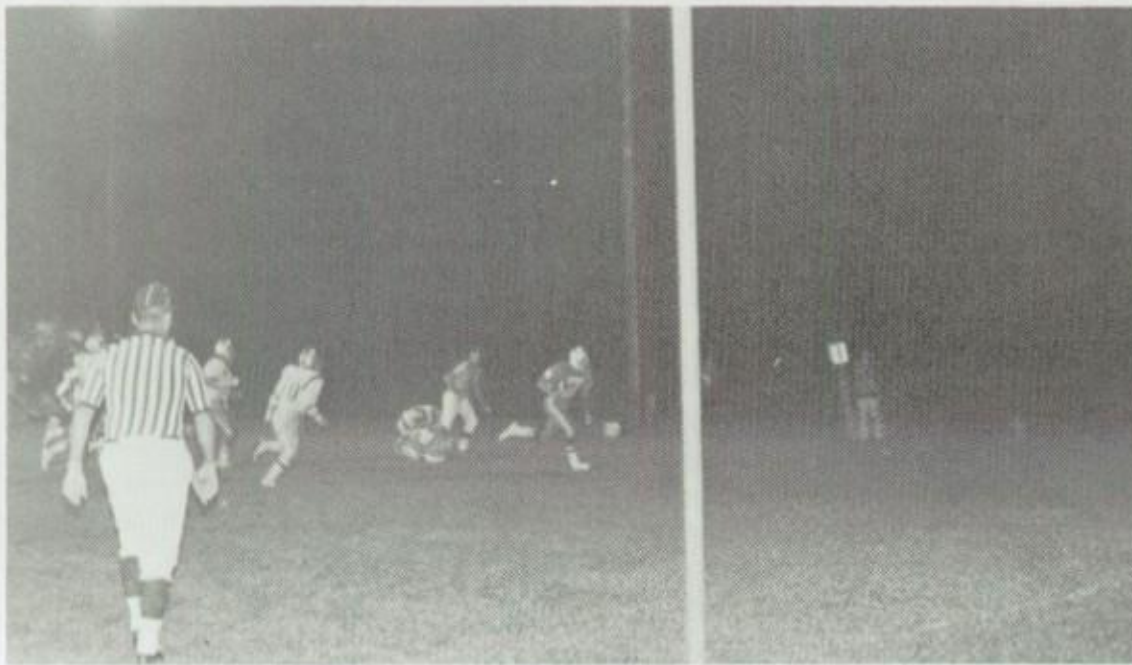

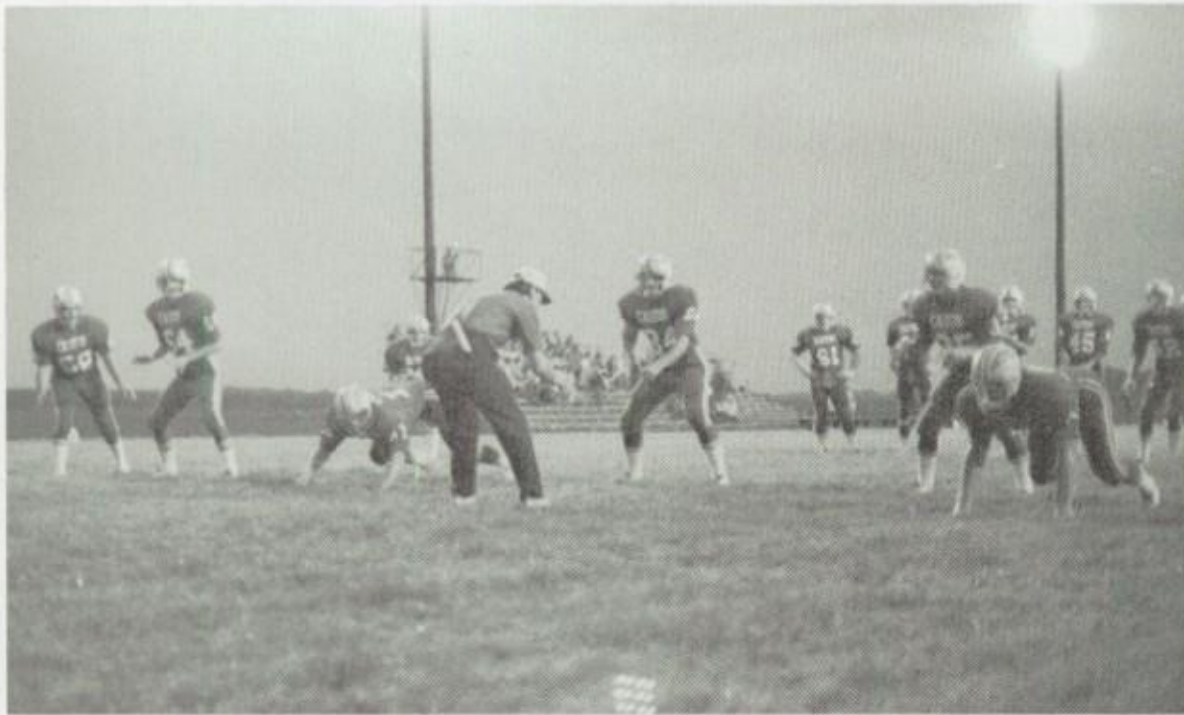

The yearbook was run like a business organization. The editor gave the assignments and the assistant editor saw that they were carried out by the staff members, thus freeing the editor for more important duties.

Experience is most needed in football. Winning and losing are both also part of the game. The boys had their losing, but this was their year for a winning season. Their record was 8-2. The defense was sensational, never being scored on in the last quarter.

With a season of 1-1-1 for the junior varsity and 1-2 for the freshmen, it was a fairly good year.

With one win, two ties, and three losses, the junior high boys gained more experience.

Volleyball Spiked Their Way To New Skills

The girls volleyball team ended their season with a record of 2-22.

Cinda Moss team captain, aided Miss Dailey, coach, in the leadership of the team.

The season was a rewarding one in the sense that the girls learned a great deal from their experiences.

Cross Country Wins Invitational

Despite a late start, the Comet runners came on strong. They were again led by Dave Sommers, a senior. He finished the season undefeated in dual meets and sixth in the sectional. That is one place away from going to the regional.

The team had a strong nucleus in Jeff Dague, Dan Sommers, Al Morrow, and Rick Gearhart. Not far behind them and always improving were Paul Ulerick, Rick Hart, and Jeff Lewis.

Dave was voted most valuable, and Rick Gearhart won the most improved runner trophy.

The team had a record of 4-4, losing only to schools larger than Caston. Their biggest win was in the North Miami invitational, beating North Miami by 15 points after losing to them two days before by one point. The biggest let down was in the conference where the team finished third.

Dave Sommers, Al Morrow, and Jeff Lewis were lost to the team for next year due to graduation.

The Dedicated Club

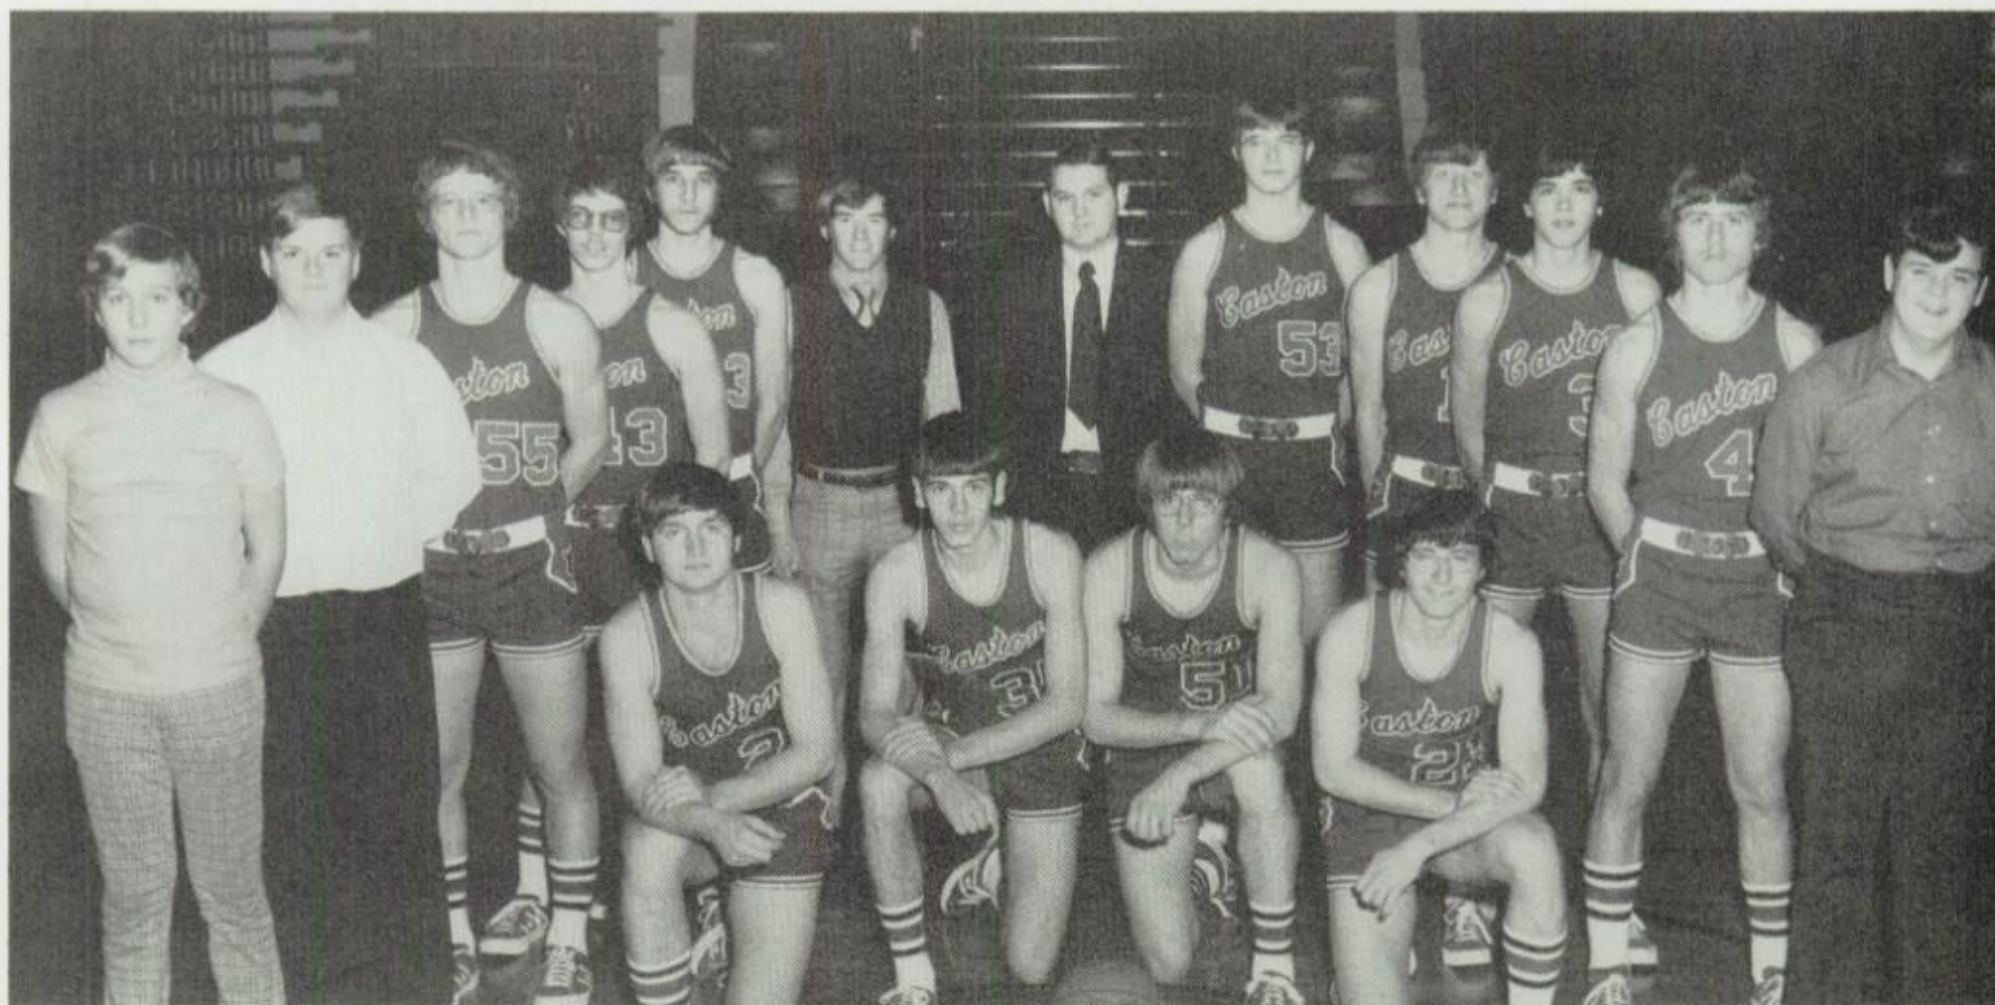

Under the direction of Coach Blackburn, the wrestling team developed stamina and strength. For those who excelled in cunning, coordination, and physical strength, there were endless hours of practice. An added attraction to the team were 13 smiling, yelling, full-of-spirit Matmaids. They were in charge of collecting money, keeping score, and bubbling over with spirit and enthusiasm at meets. The boys had a successful year in the ways of learning and winning. The sport attracted more boys and more fans to come and watch.

This year's season started off with a new coach, Carl Miller, whose main concern was in building confidence in the minds of the team as to their abilities.

Their main strength was in the depth and ability to use several players in a single game.

The seniors contributed a great deal to the program. Looking to the future, several excellent players are returning. The improvement since the beginning of the season looks most encouraging.

The junior varsity, under new coaching this year, had an off-and-on season. The boys worked hard at what they did and showed it by some of the close scores.

The freshmen, coached by Mr. Mulry, had a learning year. The team didn't win many games but learned new techniques and gained more experience.

Large Number Come Out For Girls' Track First Year

This was the first year for our girls' track team. Twenty-three girls turned out for the team. Although there were only three meets, the 1-2 record will be improved as the team matures. They are on their way up by placing in two relays. The girls looked very good this year and learned about winning and losing.

Diane Becker was the only girl to qualify for the regionals.

Track Runs An Exciting Season

The 1973 track season was a good one for Caston. David Sommers was the most valuable man on the team. Dick Shaw lead in the field events, while Bruce Grable was top sprinter. Dana Zartman was labeled outstanding underclassman.

Caston's two best men, David Sommers and Dick Shaw, entered the regionals.

Coaches Schnepf and Blackburn enjoyed a prosperous season.

Baseball Has Successful Year

The Caston baseball team had a busy schedule this year, playing during spring and summer. The hard-working team had a total of 19 games, and they won 7. Even though the team lost more games than they won, they defeated some bigger and better schools such as Peru, Winamac, and Pioneer. The team lost four seniors—Ron Simmons, Mike Grable, Nate Maudlin, and Warren Lease.

Brad Tam was chosen most valuable player and was also chosen to the all-conference team.

Spirit Raisers

Both varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders did a fine job of increasing student body enthusiasm and backing the players 100%.

These girls did their part, and more, in providing enough spirit to keep up the teams' morale. The girls worked hard to learn new yells and to present skits during pep sessions.

LEARNING

Communication In All Forms

The English department of Caston helps develop a very important part of a student's life. Our instructors not only help the students pursue ideas of their own, but propose new ideas. English is the basis of our communication, and the knowledge of correct speaking and writing plays an active role in the later life of a student.

This year the German textbooks have been revised and are much more interesting. The first year classes learned to tell time, sang German folk songs, and did folk dancing. The second year dealt more with the language itself, concentrating on grammar, reading and writing, and enlarging vocabulary. Also, they did a good deal of research on German life and customs.

Preparing For The Big Job

The major purpose of the business department is to prepare students for future careers in business. Knowing what to expect as a beginning worker will speed the student's adjustment to his first real job and will help him become fully productive as soon as possible.

The secretarial office practice class have encountered new experiences this year such as acting as office receptionist, doing typing for teachers, and best of all, taking coffee breaks.

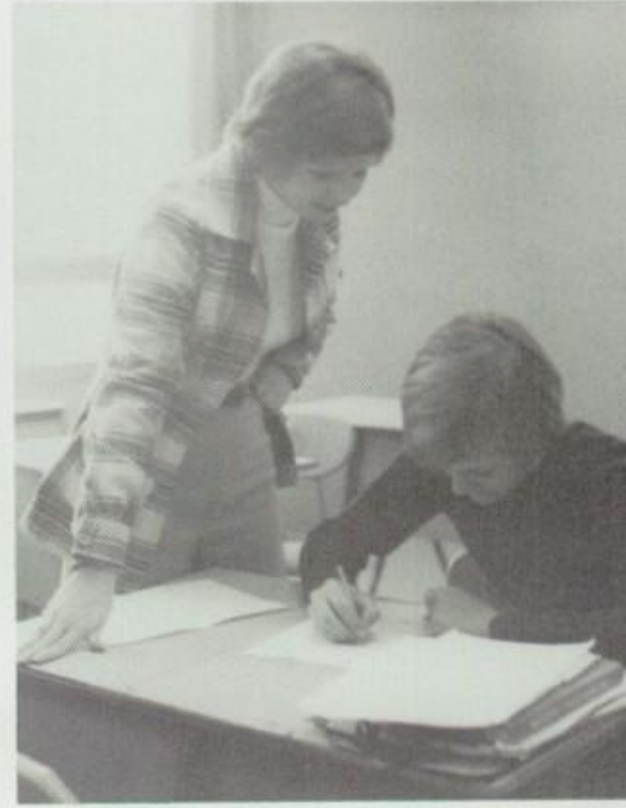

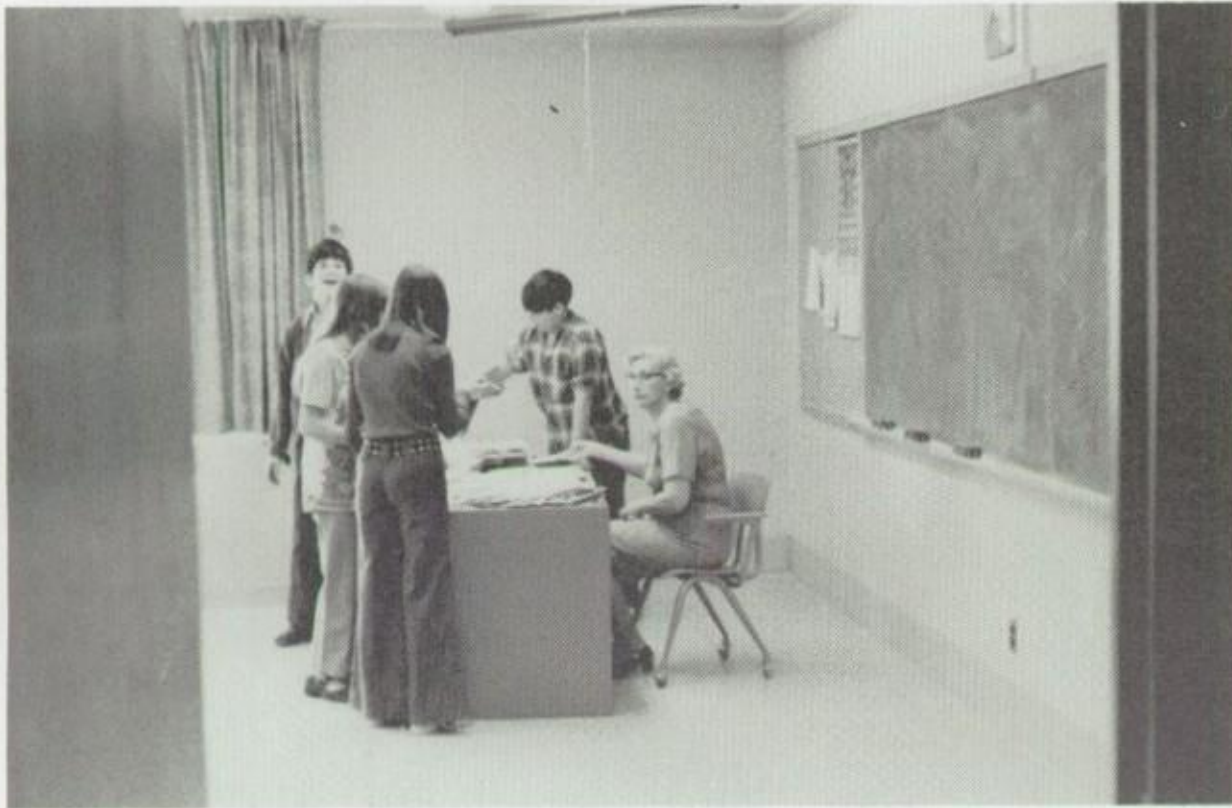

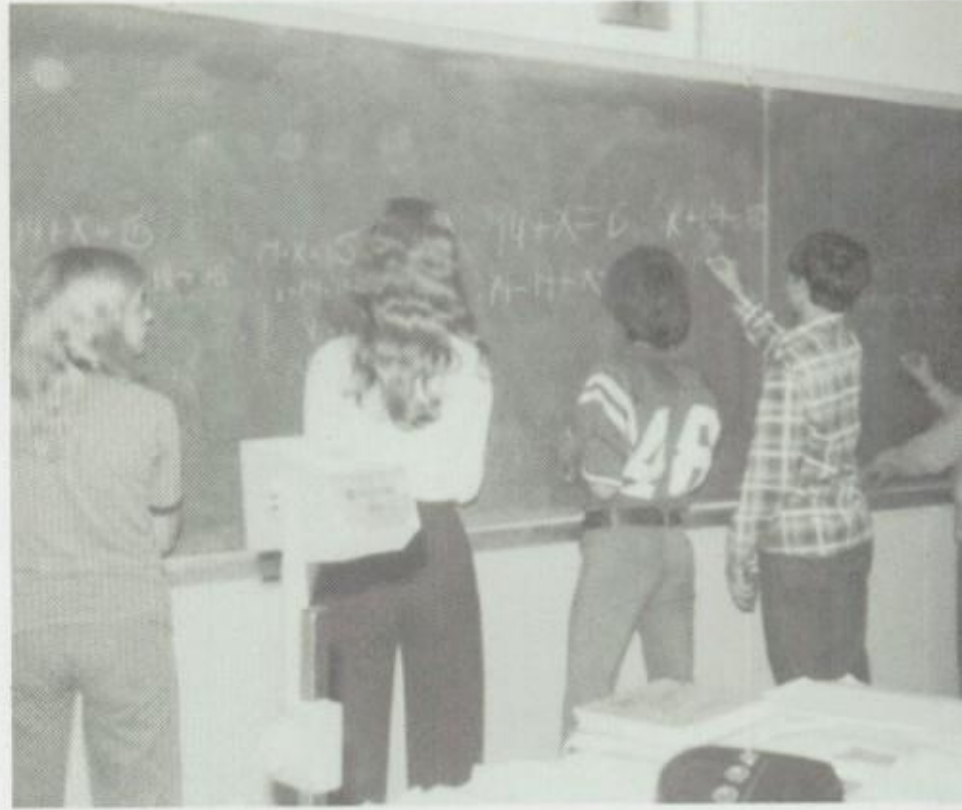

The Many Ways Of Communicating

The speech classes this year performed little plays for the elementary grades. They were filmed LIVE on the school's TV camera for later reference. Culture day was every Friday wherein the students had charge of the class for the hour and presented many interesting and enlightening subjects.

It All Adds Up

Math is essential to all students at Caston in one way or another. Even though confusion and panic strikes at unbearable times, the teachers are always there to lend a helping hand.

Striving To Understand The Unknown

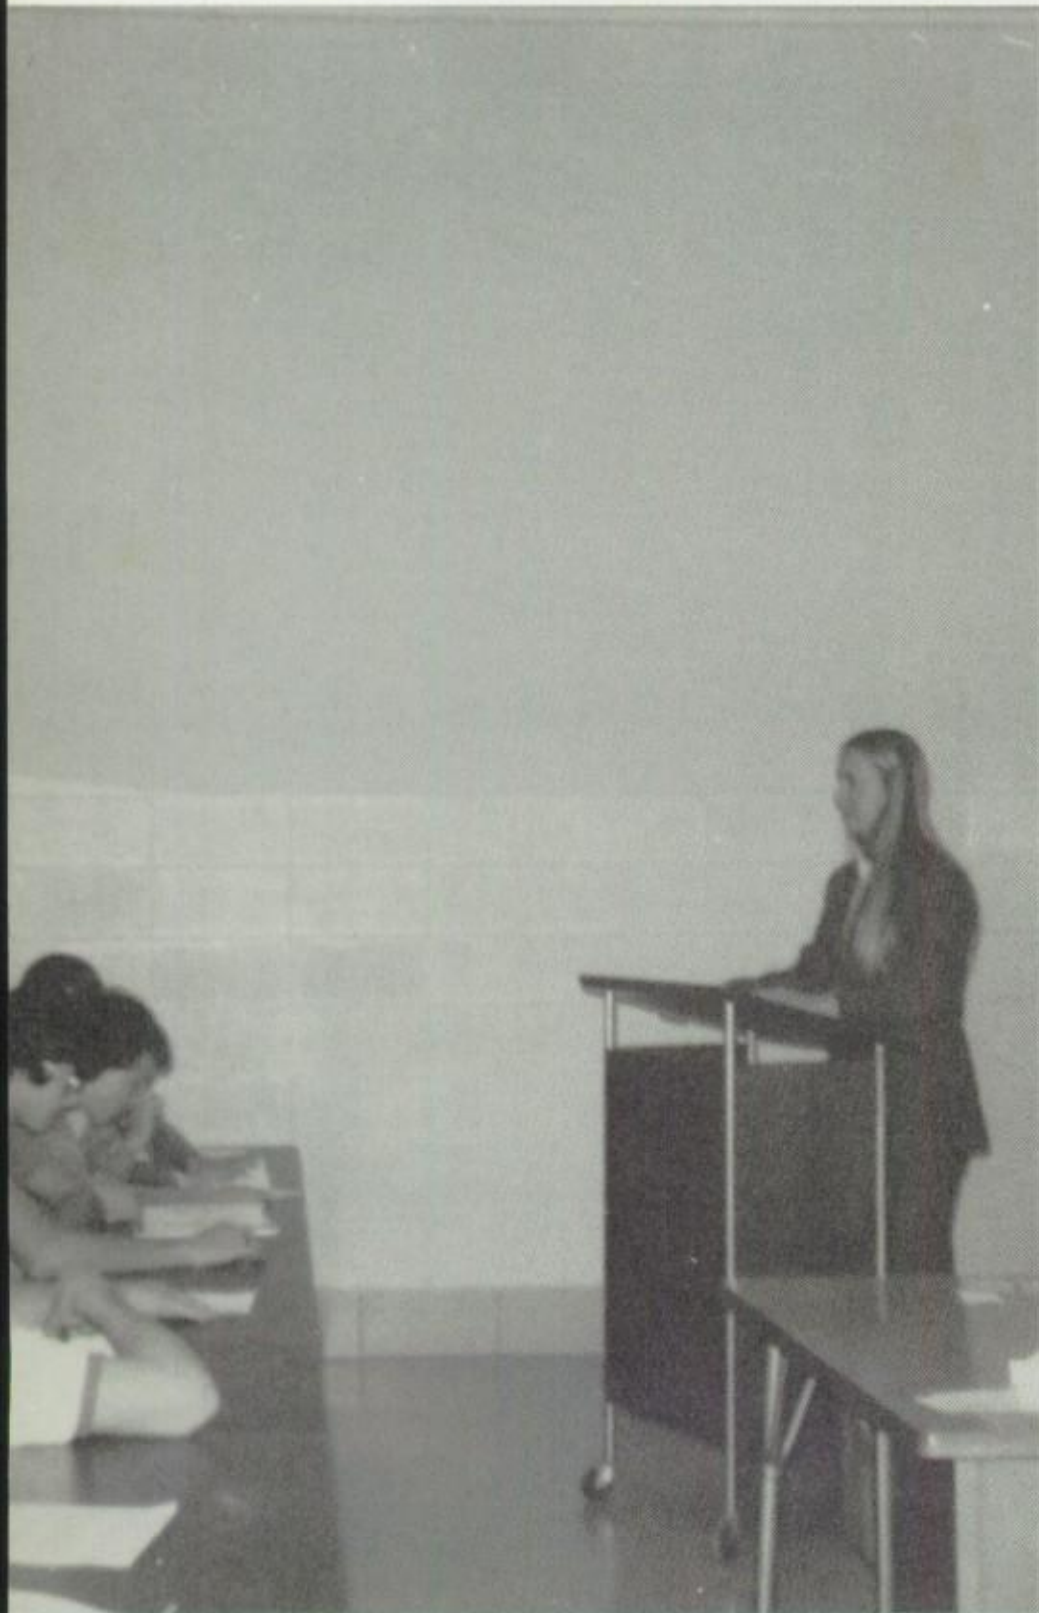

The world of science is not all bubbling beakers and Bunsen burners, as most science students soon realize. There is always the challenge of finding the unknown. Not everyone can discover something different and exciting, but everyone comes in contact with science every day.

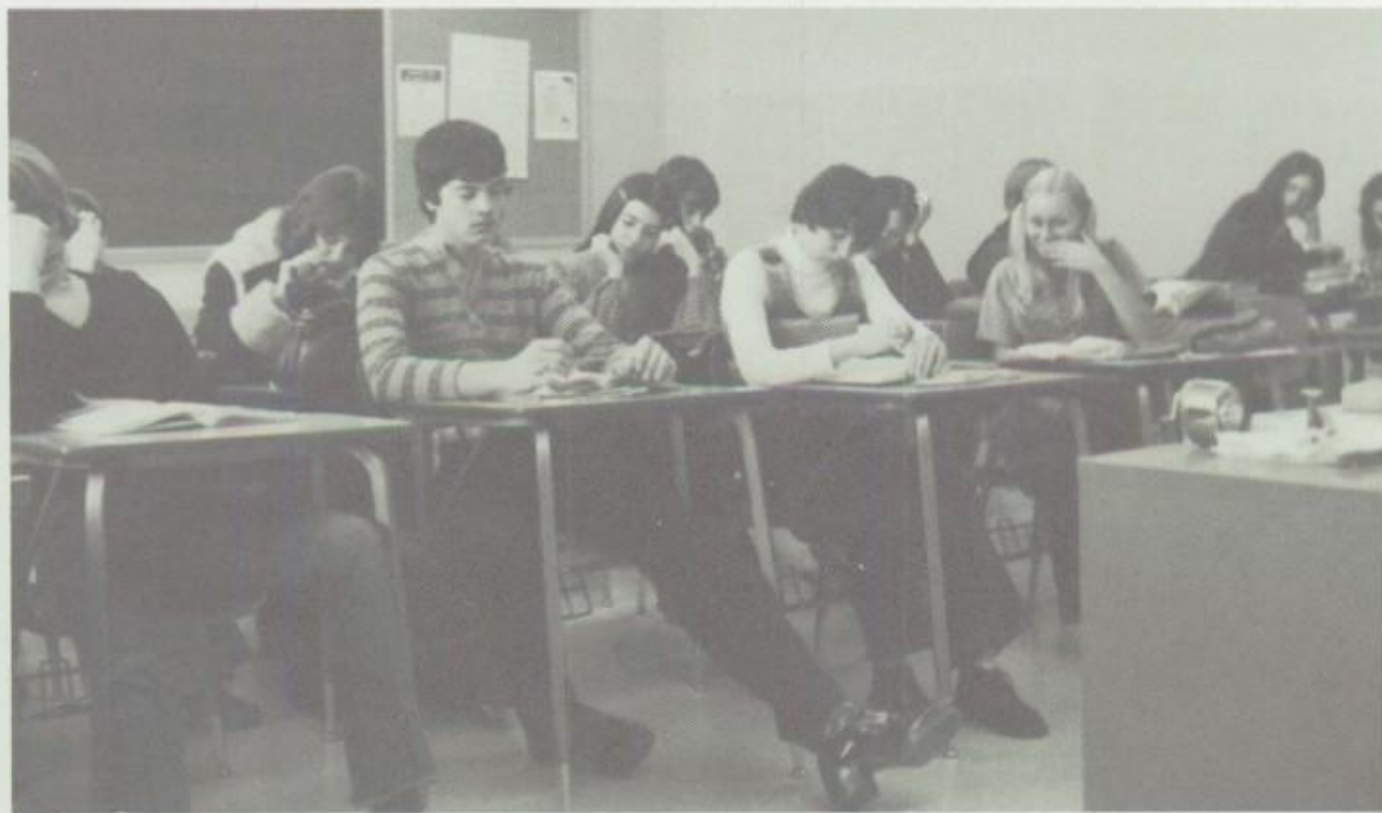

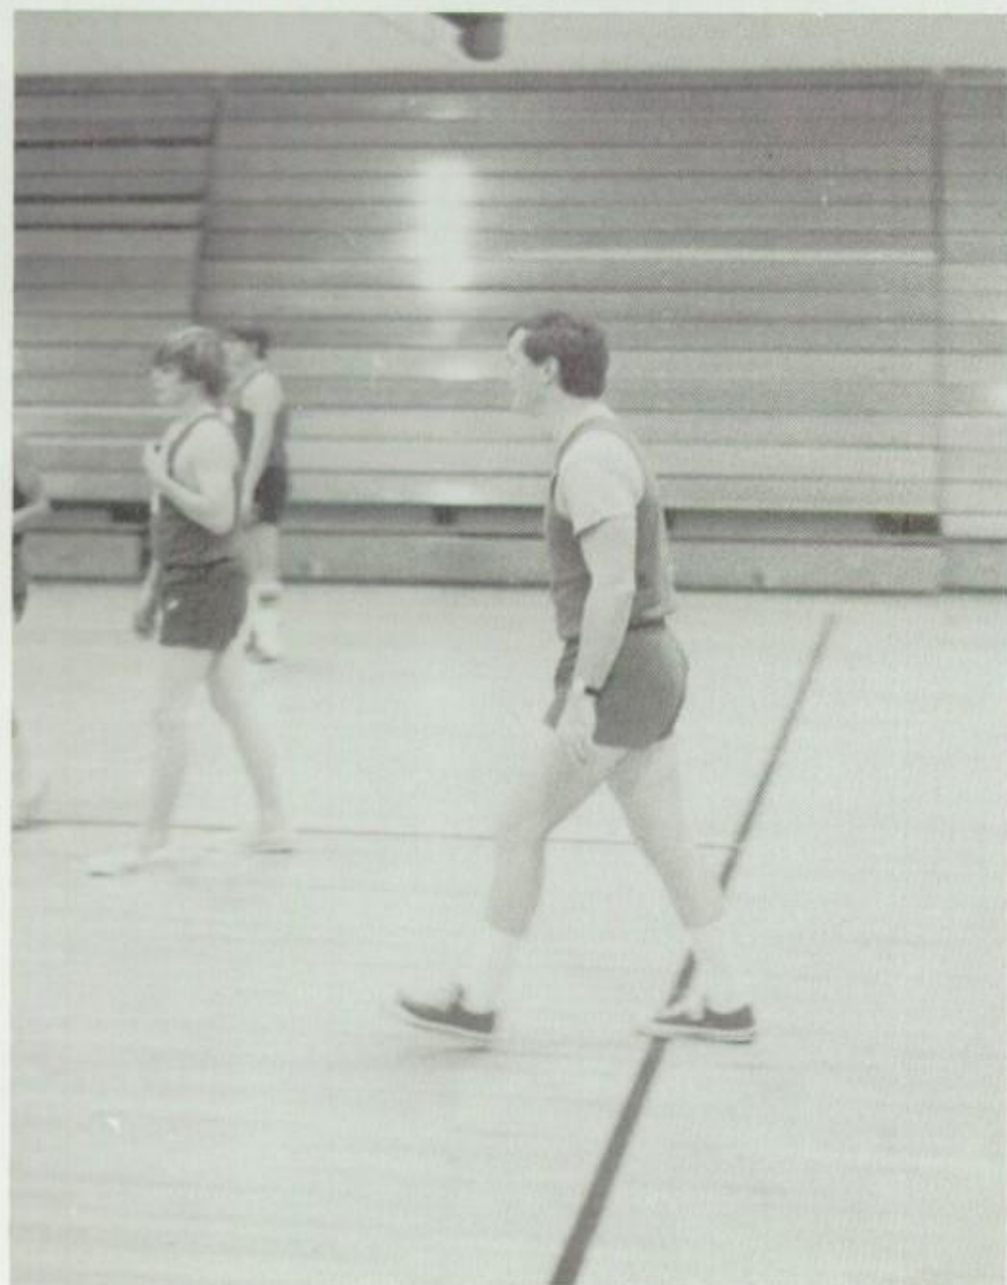

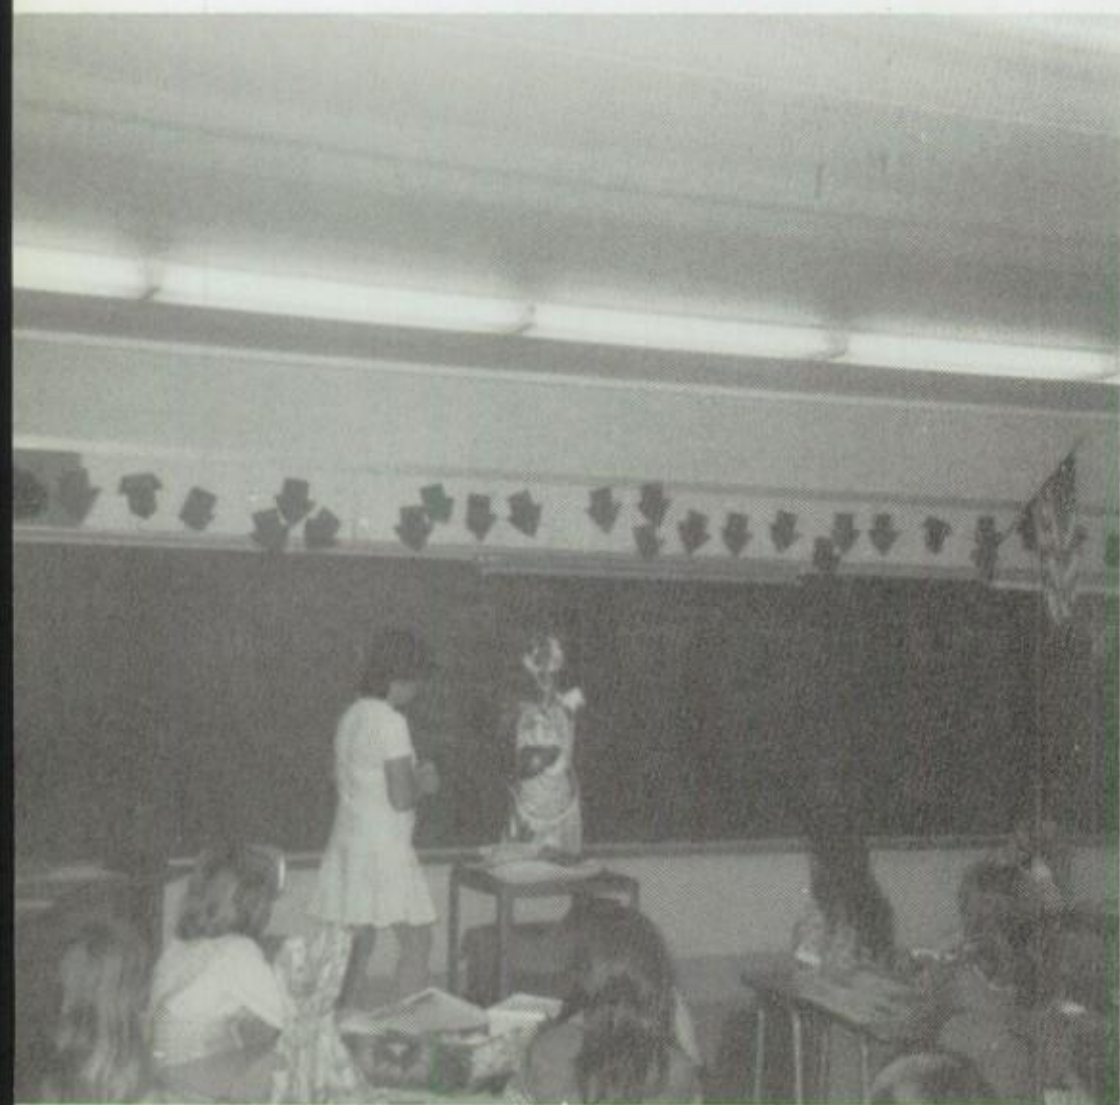

Students Learn About The Past And The Present

People are the center of study in world history. The United States history classes try to familiarize students with future events and past events in time. The juniors in history class found that after Columbus discovered the "new world," there was a chain reaction of events.

The government classes learned one important thing this year. Besides studying about Watergate and stating one's opinions on interesting items they learned another interesting thing—when to open your mouth and when not to.

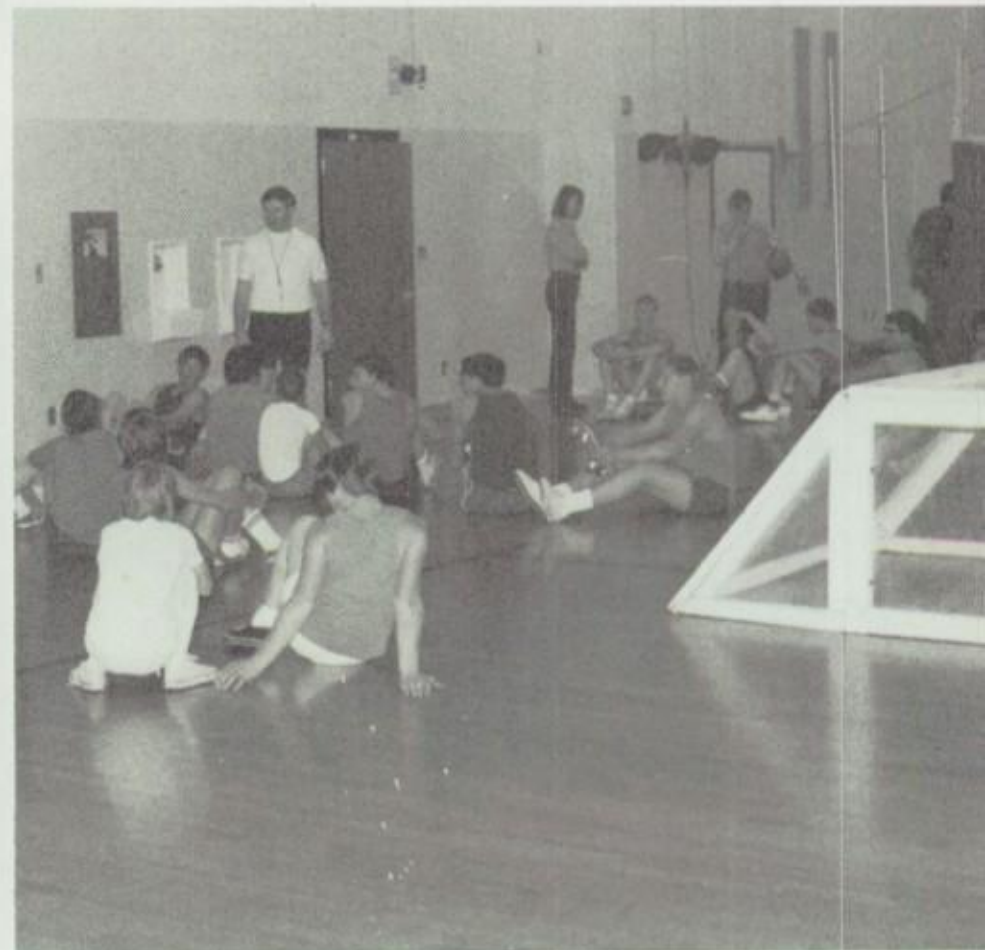

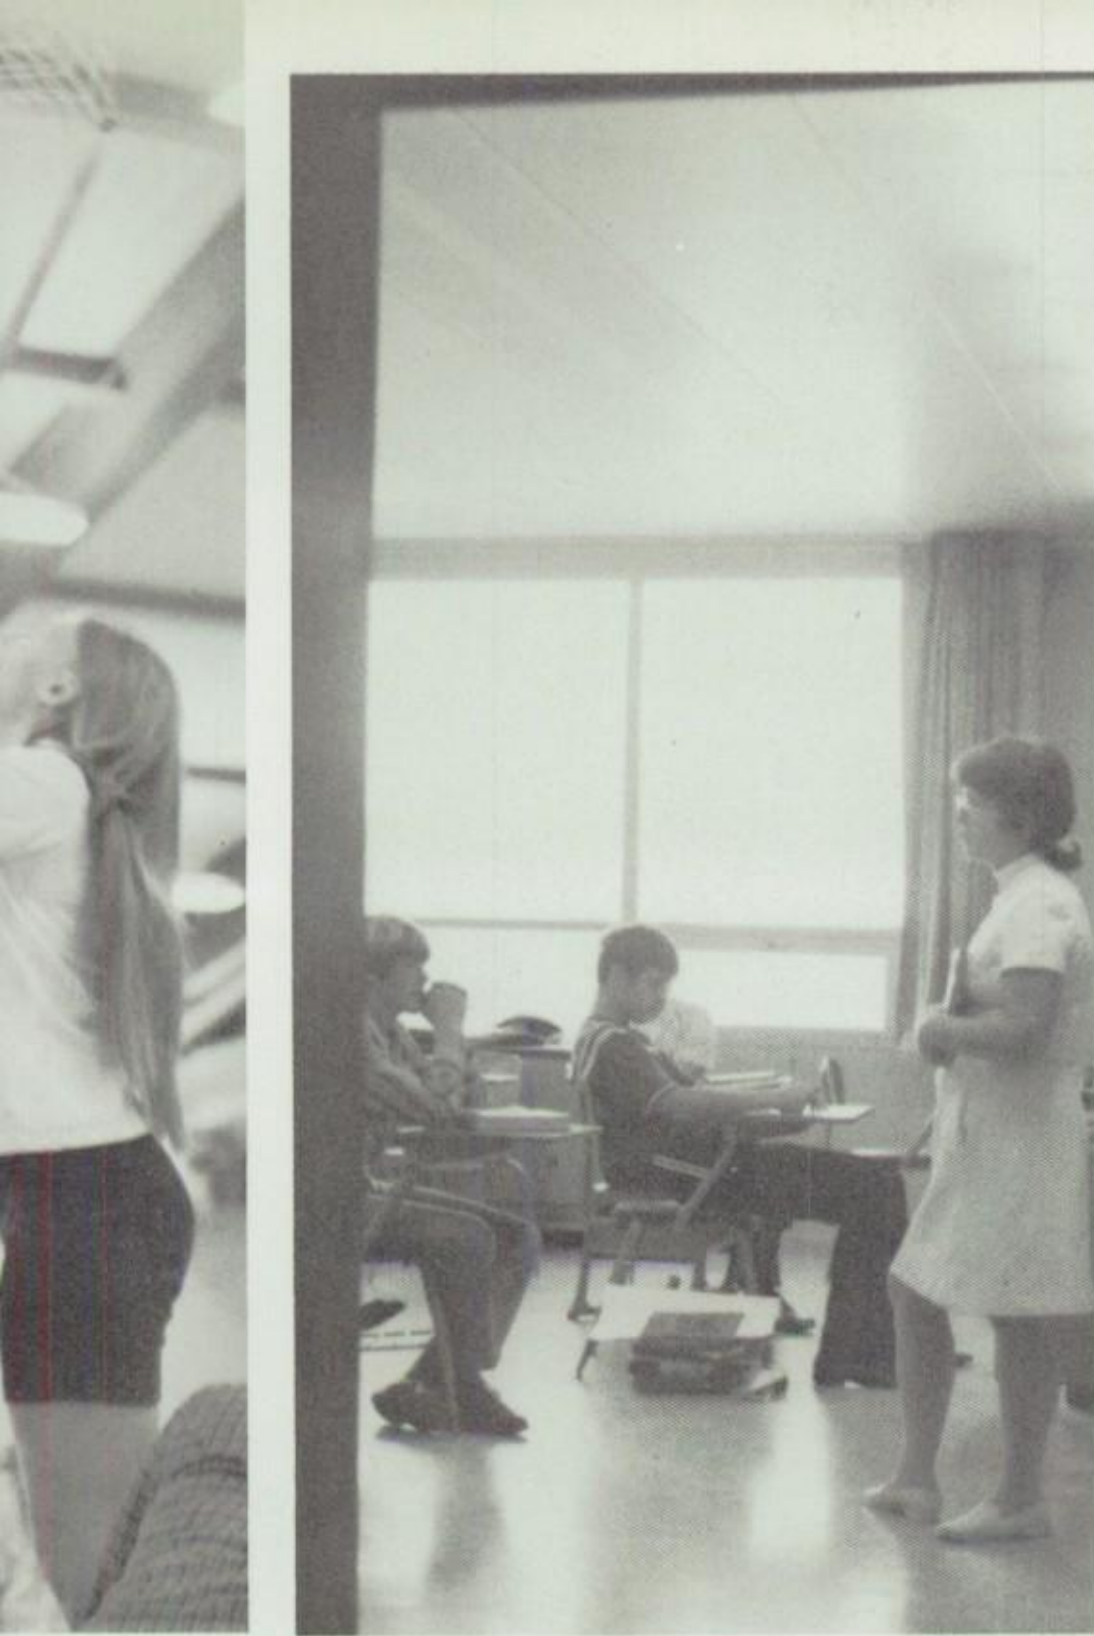

Students Learn About Health Problems And How To Keep Physically Fit

Gymnastics was the main sport in girls physical education this year. The girls also worked very hard on basketball.

The boys learned a lot of new wrestling holds. Gymnastics also played a very important part in their curriculum. Once the junior high went bowling, and very soon after the high school boys went too. As for track and field in physical education, Mr. Mulry decided to have a special day so the boys who did not participate in varsity track would also have a chance to show their talents.

In girls health, the main emphasis of first aid was learning how to wrap an injury.

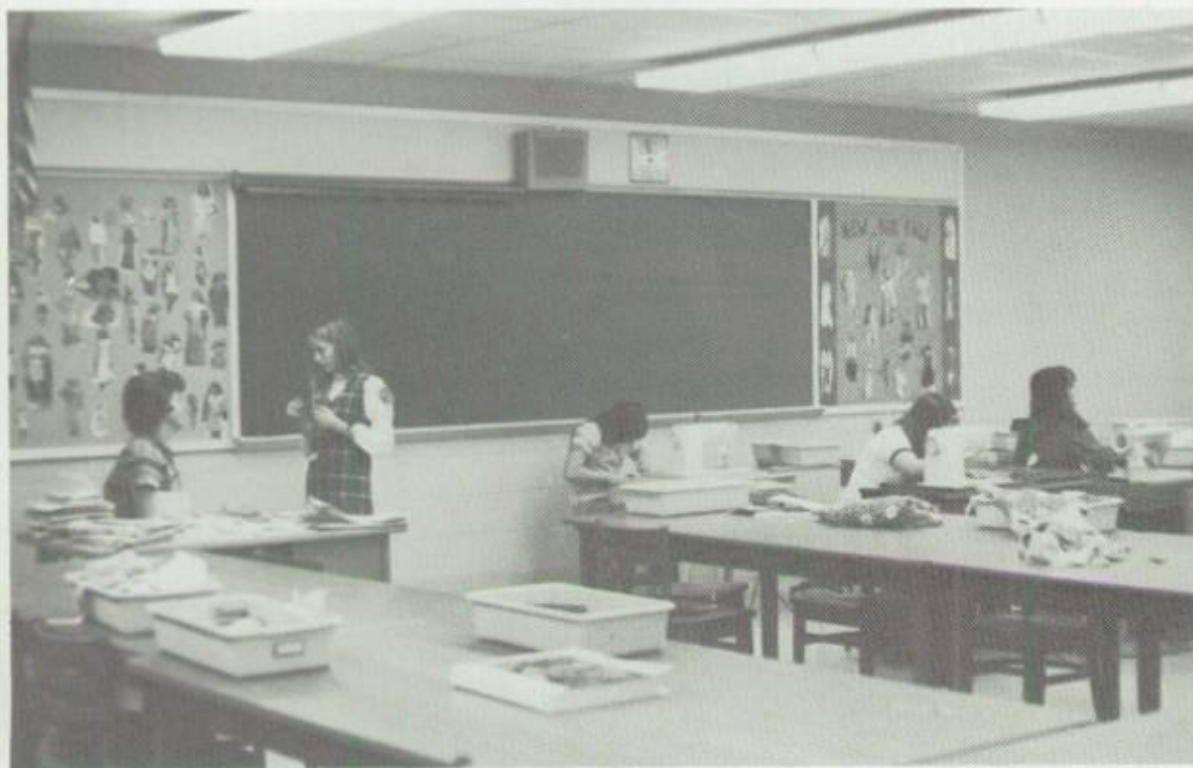

The boys health class had the privilege of hearing a state policeman speak about the adverse effects of marijuana and alcohol. They also had the expert speaker, Mr. Mulry, on sex education.

Future Homemakers Learn Many Skills

The home economics department taught needed skills for modern life to both boys and girls. Sewing and cooking weren't the only skills learned. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Herrold gave lessons on good grooming, health, and family life. The junior girls discussed the various house types and made plans for their dream houses. Making a scrapbook and estimating the cost of their wedding were the senior girls' projects.

Again this year a number of senior boys took home economics for one semester. The junior boys could participate in home economics also.

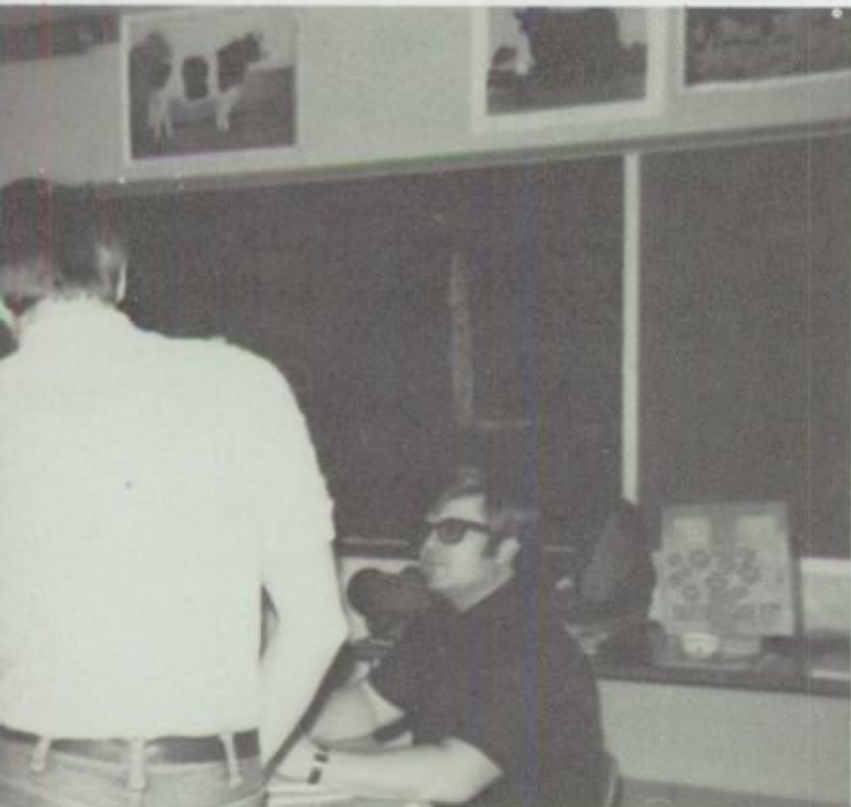

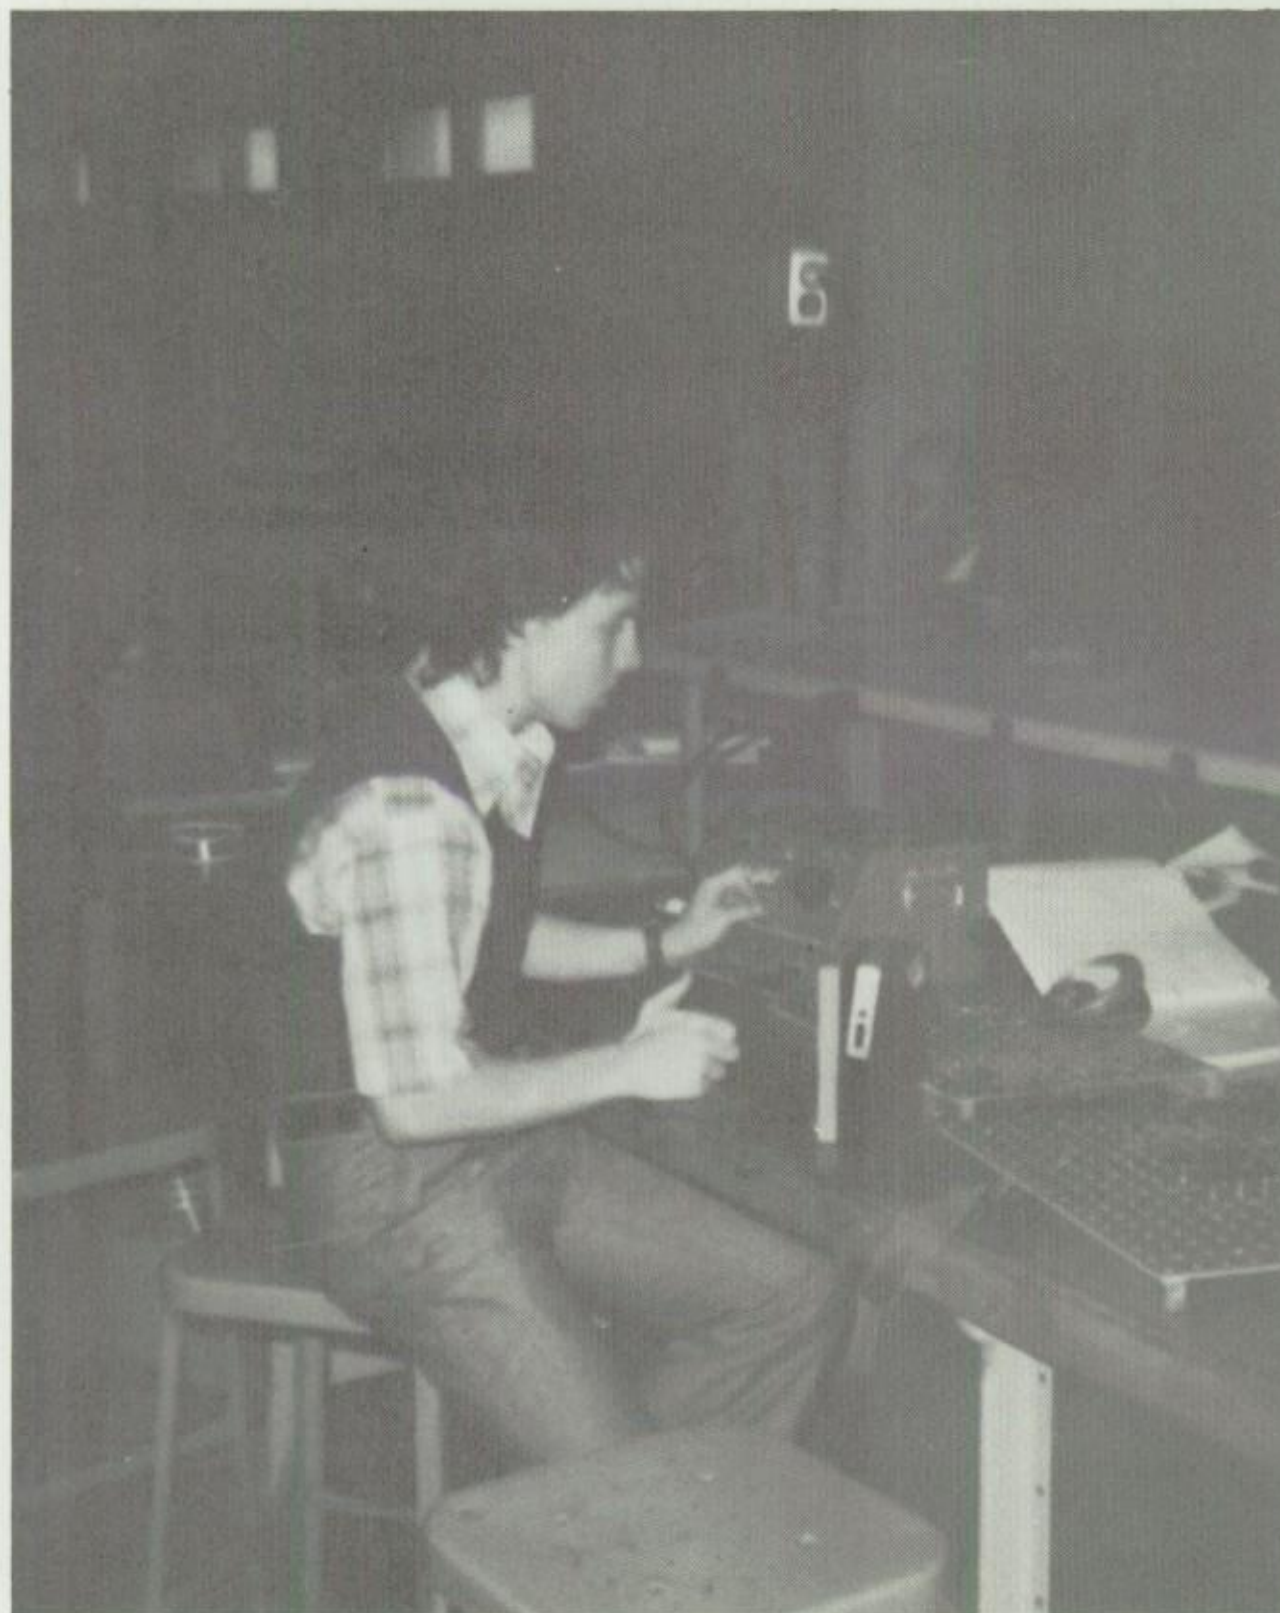

Ag Boys Learn Farming Skills

Judging, particularly in the areas of livestock and soil, was one of the educational experiences in which the agriculture boys participated during the year.

Dick Arthur, of the Twelve Mile National Bank, was speaker for topics in farm finance, and Dr. Byrum and Dr. Hartzler talked with the farm management group concerning animal management for prevention and treatment of disease.

The agriculture classes studied in the areas of supervised farming programs, management of the farm business for maximum profit, understanding taxes, introduction to welding, weed and crop seeds, and areas of livestock and crop production. Some of the students were able to set up equipment, make livestock trailers and feeders, and repair equipment.

Learning By Doing

The art classes had many things planned for this year. At Christmas they had a display showing the parents what the students have done throughout the year. As in past years, there was a small display at both the fall and spring productions of the play.

Throughout the year the art classes took a number of field trips. One such trip was to Manchester College, after which they had a weiner roast.

The art students this year have learned about ceramics, fundamentals of African art and oriental art, and modern water color paintings. They also worked quite a bit with paper mache', and seed collage pictures.

In auto mechanics they learned all about two- and four-cycle engines and worked a great deal on hydraulics. The metals classes did many welding and sheet metal projects and started on a small go-cart.

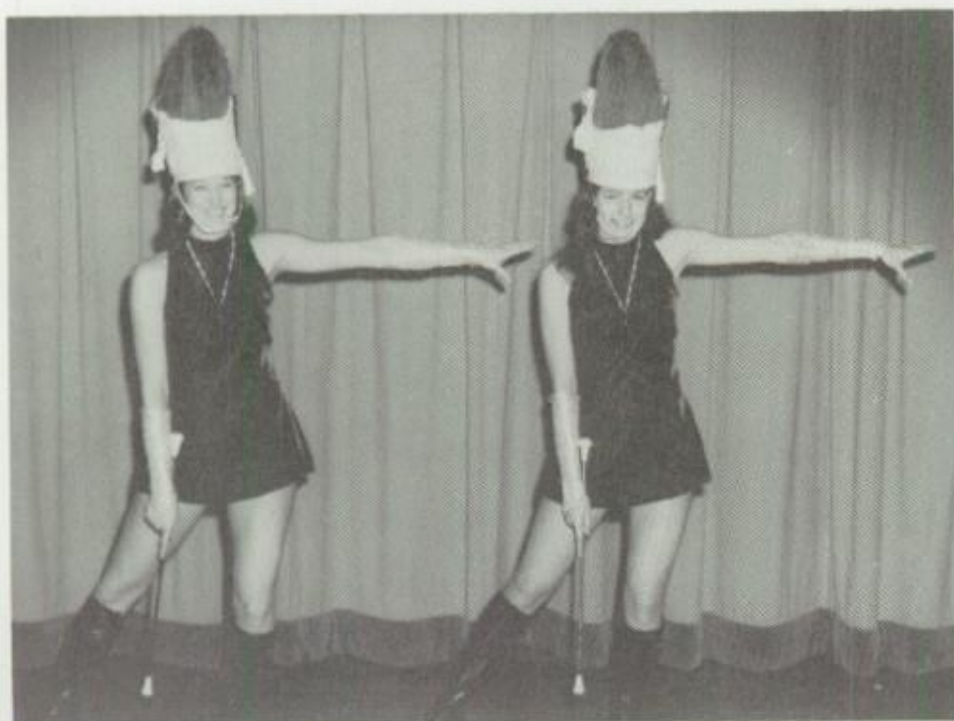

In the eighth grade they had a touch-and-go class on photography, with the help of Bob Oliver and Mr. Ginther.

In drafting Mr. Youmans endeavored to create an interest in the many phases of the art.

MAJORETTES
Lauren Montgomery and Cathy Walsh

To increase school spirit, the Caston marching Comets played at football and basketball games. The flag corps and twirlers performed a variety of halftime shows.

The band marched in some of the hottest weather of the season at the Denver Centennial and some of the coldest at the Logansport Veterans' Day parade. The members also participated in the Christmas concert and graduation.

The annual money-making project, the fish fry, was held in the fall.

The chorus provided musical entertainment at numerous functions, including church services, the Christmas concert, spring musical, and graduation.

Learning To Drive Can Be Fun

Mr. Jones, Mr. Mulry, and Mr. Schnepf were the instructors for the 1973 drivers' education classes. The first two weeks were complete classroom study. A traffic movie was shown for horrifying entertainment. Then it was out on the road for real driving experience. The students soon filled their six-hour driving requirement and became safe and competent drivers.

The senior class of '74 was a class of firsts. The seniors started the year with the tradition of taking first place in the float contest and other Homecoming activities. They were rewarded with the spirit jug. Winning the powder-puff game four years straight has made them the over-all champs.

They had a very successful prom.

The senior class has proved to be one of leadership and quality.

The senior class this year was under the direction of Mr. White.

We all wish the seniors good luck in the future.

The juniors had a very successful year. They started the year with magazine sales, on which they did a good job. The sales were ended with a pizza party.

The money they earned from their magazine sales went toward the expenses of the junior-senior prom. The juniors worked very hard all year long on the prom, which proved to be a great success.

The sponsors of the junior class this year were Mrs. Ogle and Mr. Urbin.

The sophomore class, under the leadership of Mrs. Stinson, worked very hard this year on their float.

The highlight of the sophomore year was receiving their class rings. They were very proud of them.

They are looking forward to a class party.

Good luck, sophomores, in your future years at C.H.S.

The eighth grade this year seemed to be a very active group.

Even though they had their own basketball and football teams to back, they also helped in cheering for the high school teams.

All year long they were looking forward to their class party at the end of the year.

They had a fabulous year under the sponsorship of Mr. Uhrich and are looking forward to being freshmen next year.

The seventh grade this year proved to be very challenging. It was their first year in high school life.

They received more responsibilities. They also learned that it doesn't have to be all work and no play. We think they will find high school life agreeable to them.

They were sponsored by Mrs. Brunn.

Administration Strives For The Best

FRANCES ULERICK
Secretary

Mr. Bunker, as superintendent, and the Board of School Trustees together aimed for the highest possible standards for our school.

From this office, information was constantly being gathered implemented to improve the educational process.

The prime objectives behind all tasks performed from this office were meeting the needs of the student body and the community.

Problems Are Worked Out

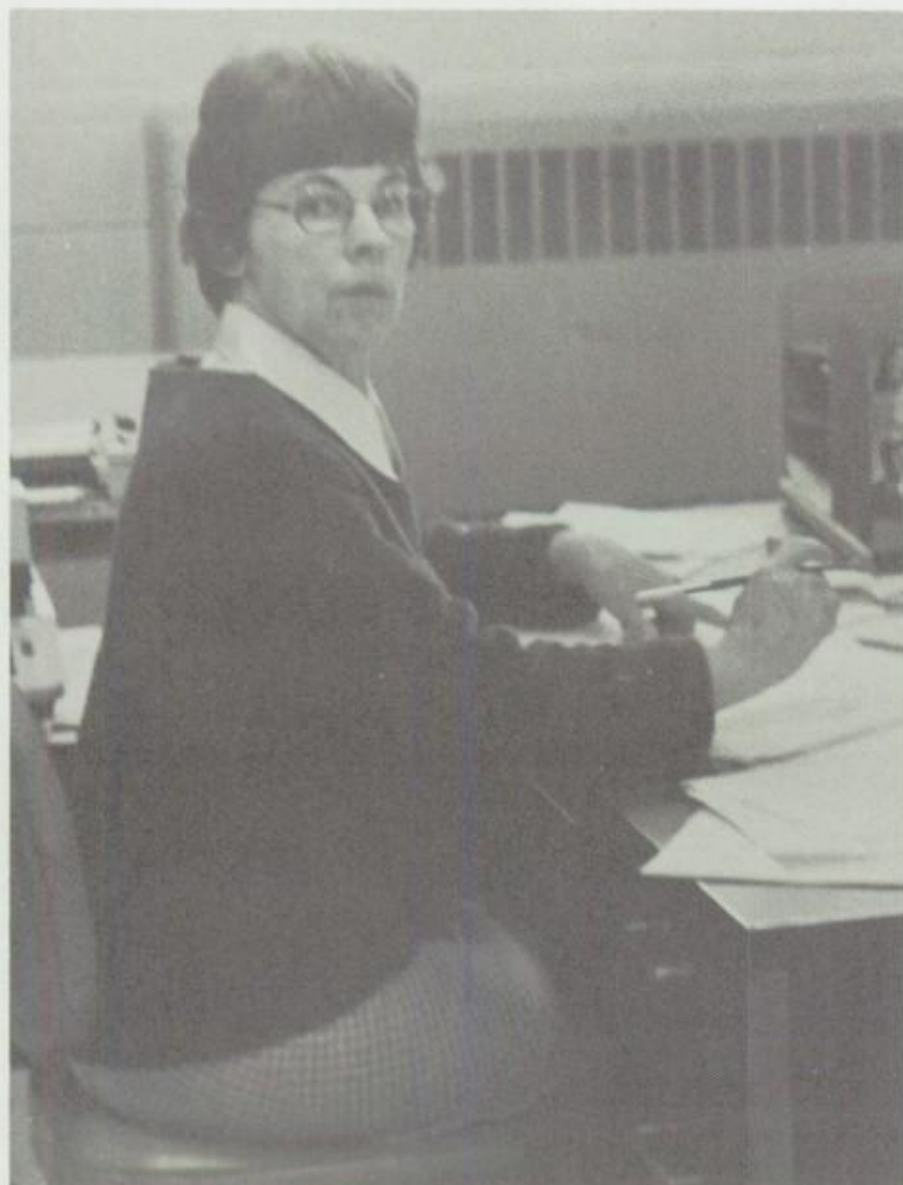

KENNETH HATTERY
Principal
JEAN KENT, Secretary

Mr. Kenneth Hattery, principal at Caston, had many varied duties. The most important aspect of his many duties was formulating a program and administering the curriculum for the benefit of all students and teachers.

He worked with the student council to improve relations among teachers, personnel, students, and parents in an attempt to make Caston High School a center for community activities.

During his leisure time, Mr. Hattery enjoyed reading, traveling, and participating in sports.

Sitting: K. Field. Standing: G. Davidson, C. Graham, J. Russell, S. Williams, M. Stuber.

CEDRIC BERDINE was the sponsor of swing choir. He taught high school and junior high instrumental and vocal music classes. He enjoyed gardening and reading.

The eighth and eleventh grade U.S. history classes were taught by MICHAEL BLACKBURN who liked woodworking and athletics. He sponsored the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was the wrestling coach. He also assisted in the football and track coaching.

RICHARD BOWSHER taught auto mechanics, power mechanics, metals, and eighth grade industrial arts the second semester. His hobbies were target shooting and auto racing.

ELAINE BROWN taught German and journalism. She was sponsor of the CASTON COMMENTS, German Club and concessions. She liked to sew, bowl, read, do needlework, and garden.

MARY BRUNN helped the seventh grade adjust to junior high by being their class sponsor. This junior high English teacher liked to sew and play bridge in her spare time.

Physical education and health were the subjects taught by BONITA DAILY. She enjoyed sewing, golf, cooking, swimming, and sponsored the Girls' Athletic Association and all female athletic teams.

Photography was a favorite pastime of DAN GINTHER. He enjoyed this when he wasn't teaching auto, power mechanics, metals, and eighth grade industrial arts. Being the coach of the junior high football team also kept him busy.

Teachers Help Develop Learning Skill

JANECE HERROLD had a busy schedule of teaching junior high home economics, physical education, health, and being guidance counselor. She also sponsored the cheerleaders and cheerblock. In the time she had to herself, she enjoyed cooking and sewing.

WELDON HICKS was the man in charge of vocational agriculture here at Caston. He also used his talent for leadership by sponsoring the F.F.A. When Mr. Hicks wasn't busy with farm work, he was into his hobby of antiques.

Typing I, bookkeeping I and general business were taught by MIRIAM HIZER. Her hobbies were music, knitting, and reading. She sponsored the National Honor Society.

CHARLES E. JONES made his eighth and ninth grade English classes enjoyable to his students. He also helped keep the French Club alive by being their sponsor. Mr. Jones listed golf and watching television as his favorite hobbies.

PATRICIA JONES taught the high school girls and the senior boys' class the essentials of home economics. She also helped the girls in Sunshine with their many activities. She said her favorite hobbies were sewing, cooking, sports, gardening, and playing the piano.

CARL MILLER, the coach of our varsity basketball team, taught seventh and eighth grade science. If he wasn't teaching or coaching, he liked to golf, fish, and attend athletic events.

Faculty Helps Students Know The World

THOMAS E. MULRY was kept busy at school this past year with such activities as head football coach, freshman basketball coach, driver education instructor, physical education and health teacher. After school he enjoyed gardening, reading, and golf.

JUDITH OGLE taught English and speech. She liked reading, writing, and traveling. She sponsored the junior class and the speech activities.

In her spare time MARGARET PETRY enjoyed painting, fishing, camping, reading, and sewing. At school she taught junior high and high school arts and crafts and was also sponsor of the Art Club.

The freshman class sponsor was MARTHA SCOTT. She taught algebra, business mathematics, and one class of eighth grade arithmetic. She liked to read and garden.

THOMAS E. SHAFFER taught sophomore and junior English the second semester this year. He enjoyed traveling, swimming, skiing, and writing.

The students at Caston learned about biology I and II, chemistry, and physical science from HOMER SMITH. In the time he had allotted for hobbies, he enjoyed farming, traveling, woodworking, swimming, and ice skating.

Sophomore, junior, and make-up English was taught by SHERRY STINSON. She was a person interested in reading, art, stamps, and animals. The sophomore class enjoyed having her for their sponsor.

The eighth grade class sponsor was ROBERT UHRICH. He taught senior physics and junior high math. In his spare time he liked to ice skate, read, and go bicycling.

Shorthand, secretarial practice, typing II, business machines, and bookkeeping II were the subjects taught by VELETA ULERICK. In her spare time she enjoyed such things as handicrafts, gardening, animals, bowling, and reading. She also spent many hours as sponsor of the yearbook and the school paper.

Sports and reading were the favorites of JACK URBIN, the world history, civics, and geography teacher. Being co-sponsor of the junior class also kept him hopping throughout the year.

The drama club sponsor was NICKI WARNER. She taught general math, geometry, algebra II, trigonometry, and analytical geometry. After school she spent her time with music and sewing.

WILLIAM WHITE taught government, economics, sociology, psychology and seventh grade geography. He enjoyed collecting old things and working with young people. He was also sponsor of the senior class.

The drafting, woodworking, and electronics teacher was LESTER YOUNANS. He enjoyed fishing and gardening in the summer.

GEORGE HAPNER
Guidance Counselor

Helping Solve Students' Problems

The counselors were always ready and willing to help when a student had a problem and needed someone to listen to them. They helped many students learn more about jobs awaiting them after graduation and the colleges available to them.

Mr. Hapner enjoys playing tennis in the summer to keep trim. He likes to show his ability for a green thumb by raising his own garden.

Miss Dulle provided helpfulness to all youngsters requiring special attention. As a speech and hearing therapist, she has made our language more enjoyable for all.

Very Helpful People Found In Quiet Haven

KAREN WATSON
Library-Audiovisual Director

ALICE DAVIDSON
Library Aide

JEAN GRABLE
Library Aide

Thanks to Karen Watson, Jean Grable, and Alice Davidson the library was the perfect place to study.

Karen Watson was the library-audiovisual director. She was responsible for the projectors, films, and other equipment available at our school. Some of her hobbies were cooking, reading, sewing, and sports.

Jean Grable was the high school library aide. She assisted the students in finding information and maintained the quiet atmosphere that was needed to study. Among her hobbies were golf, sewing, and reading.

Alice Davidson was the elementary library aide. She helped the elementary students find books they'd enjoy reading. She also read stories to many of the younger students. Mrs. Davidson enjoys knitting and reading as some of her hobbies.

Nursing A Typical Job?

GLORIA SMITH
School Nurse

The school nurse, Mrs. Gloria Smith, and her helpers worked hard every day in giving emergency care for the ill and injured students.

In addition to implementing school health policies, Mrs. Smith gave talks to health and home economics classes about various health problems and their care, as well as discussing careers in nursing and health.

R. Bookwalter, J. Hapner, L. Button, M. Miller, D. DeWitt

JOE OGDEN
Elementary Principal

Elementary Is In Good Hands

RUTH ANN SMITH
Secretary

It was the duty of the elementary principal to help execute the policies of the board of education and to see that each child had a qualified teacher and necessary materials to receive the best education possible. It was his desire that each child acquire a genuine love for learning and an opportunity to achieve his potential.

Young And Old Together At Work And Play

Elementary life is one of the most important stages of our lives. The students meet kids their own age, make friends, start to form habits, and begin to develop emotionally and physically.

The elementary youngsters had some very good times which will be remembered the rest of their lives.

Providing Nourishment For Mind And Body

BONNIE MONTGOMERY
Secretary

LEWIS CAMERON
Athletic Director and Financial Administrator

The bookstore again was a help to students by supplying necessities such as paper, notebooks, pens, and pencils. Rental books were handled through the bookstore as well as all the uniforms and gear for the Athletic Department.

Even though the prices of food were climbing rapidly, the cooks, under the supervision of Mrs. Crain, again prepared nutritious and satisfying meals. The snack bar also had a variety of foods this year.

Sitting: V. Crain, M. Cox, C. Conrad, M. James, E. Siders, A. Alber, B. Hoff. Standing: R. S. son, C. Unger, B. Lease, H. Ulerick, S. DeWitt, J. Sadler, D. DeWitt, B. Grable.

Services Essential To Student's Needs

The bus drivers faithfully provided transportation to and from school in both good and bad weather, no matter how nerve-racking it may have been. Mr. Lee was kept busy keeping the buses in good running condition. Many thanks to our custodians who kept our school neat and clean, and also kept all the systems in good working condition.

The Other Side Of The Teachers

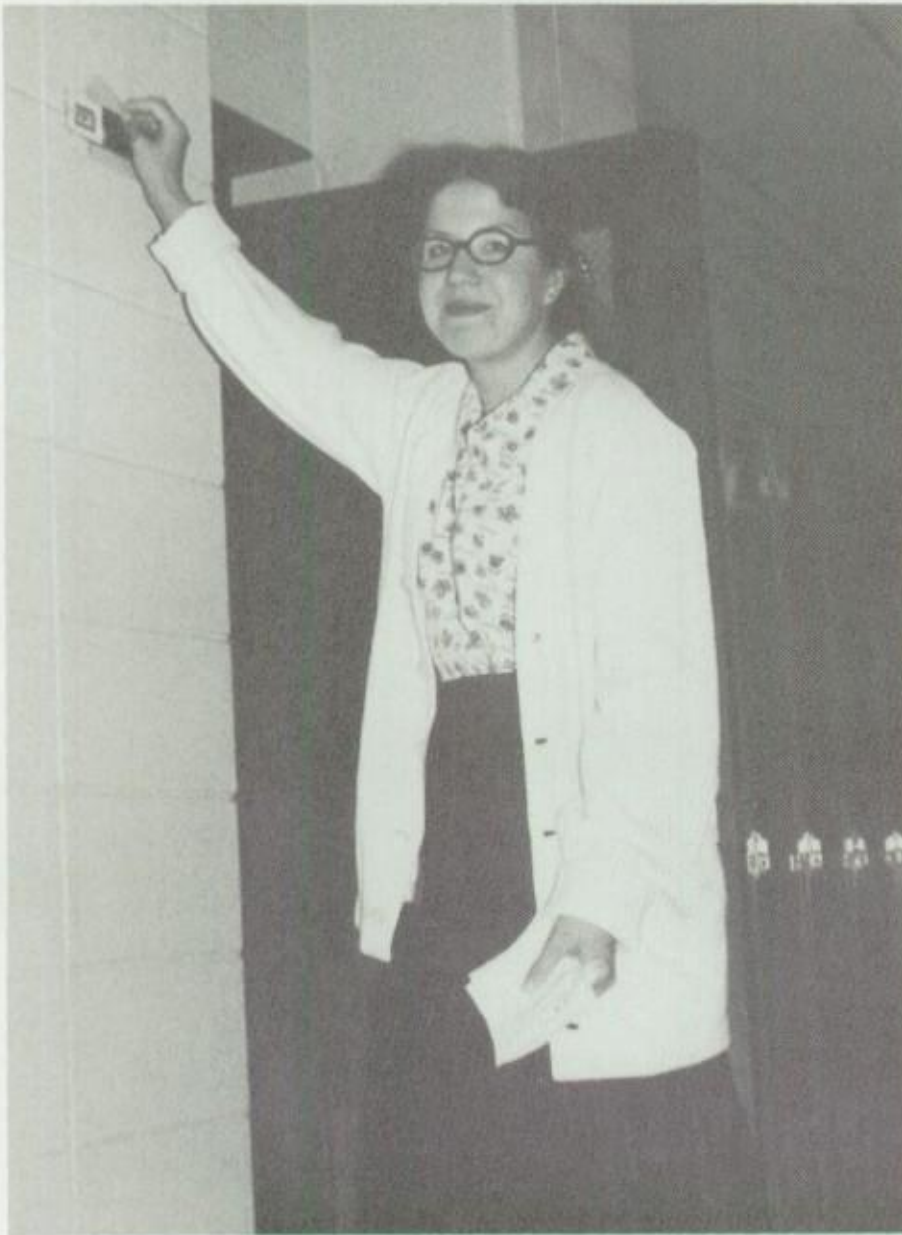

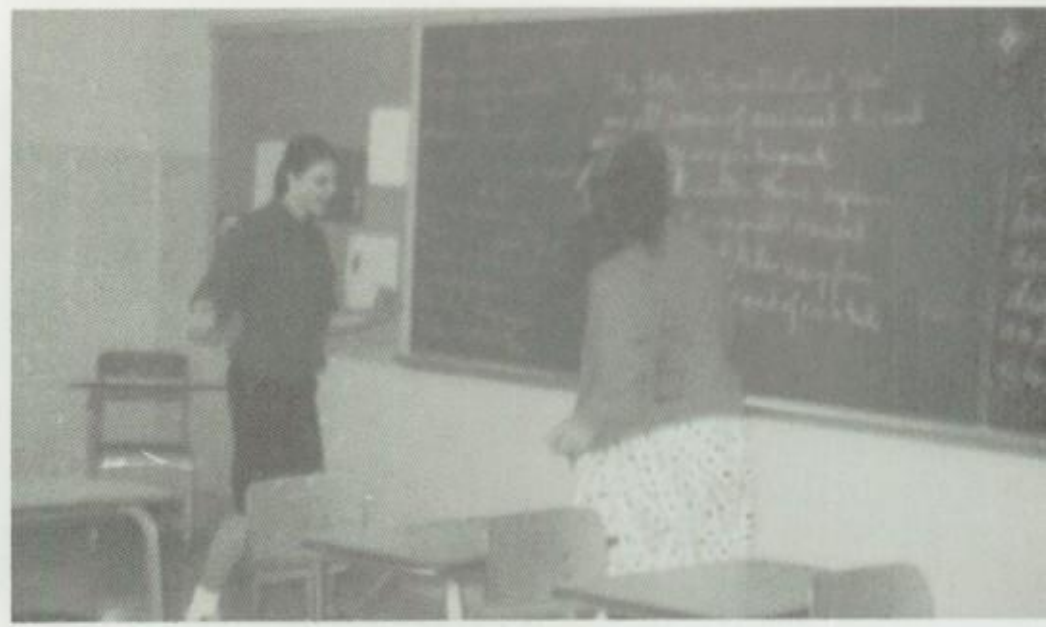

"Oh, I hate school, I hate teachers, I hate everything! I just want to quit!"

However, they, the teachers, cooks, and even janitors, had to be strict in school to keep order, but that doesn't necessarily mean that they were strict all of the time.

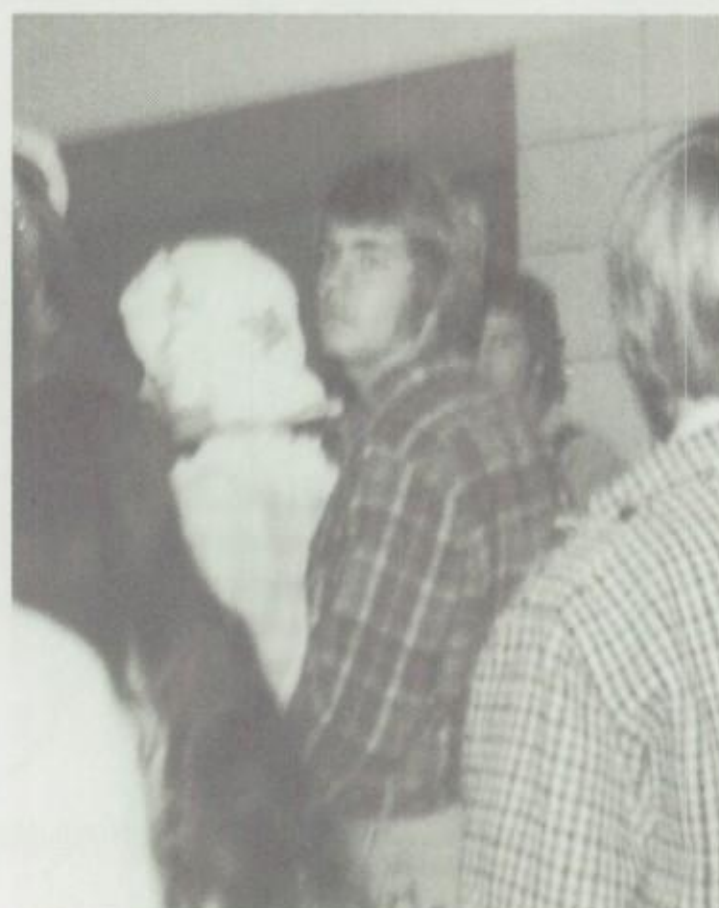

We found that, even though we thought it impossible, they were human beings with problems and really had feelings. They were sad or happy, mixed up or "had it altogether", very much like ourselves. But we as students had to give them the chance to prove to us that they weren't so bad after all. Because someday we, our generation, will be stepping into their shoes.

The Whole Thing

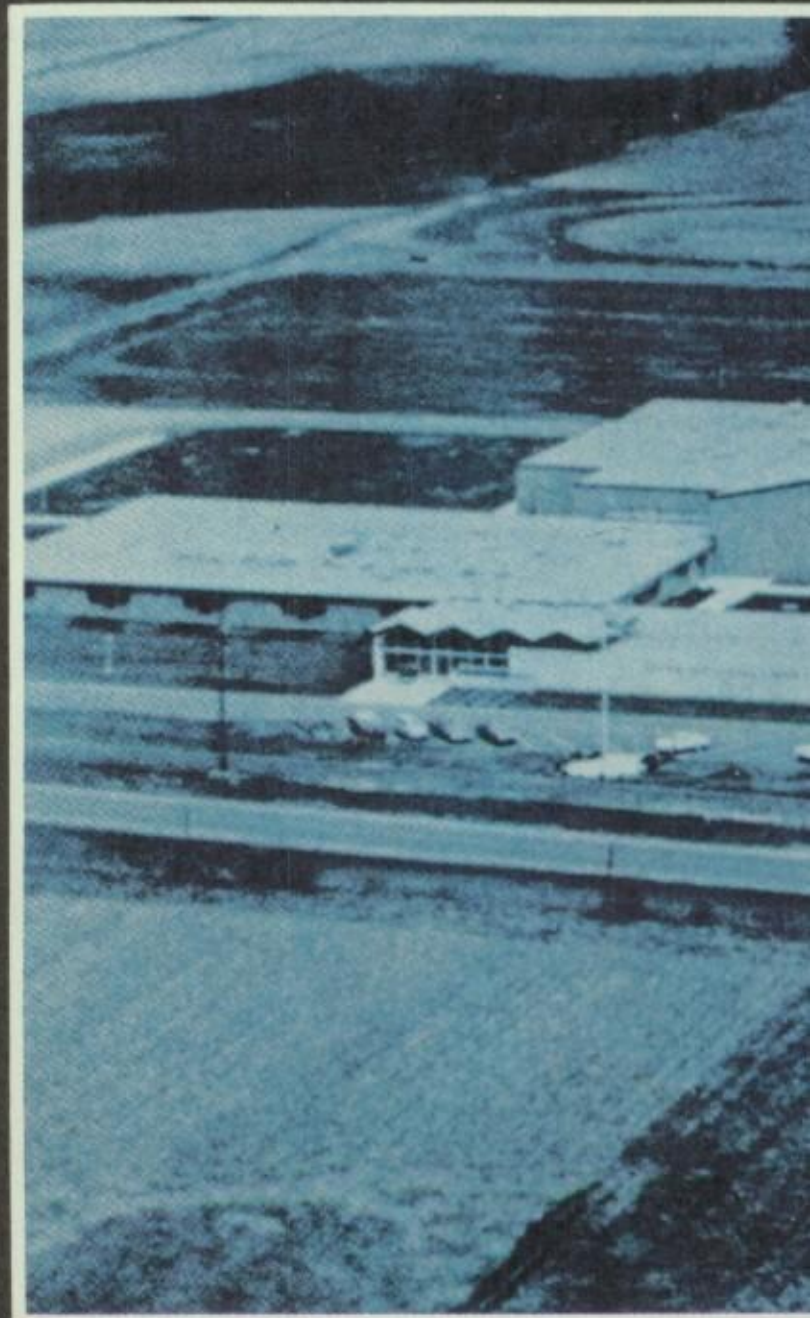

We're the whole thing. Little boys, little girls, juniors, high basketball games, elementary field trips, high school football team having a winning season, all-school convocations, the sharing of one gym, all-school cheerblock, lunchroom tables shared with elementary boys and girls, seniors being able to do exploratory teaching, and juniors high through high school helping elementary teachers. This is the whole thing. Our school enjoys being the whole thing.

On behalf of the staff, we'd like to thank Rodney Gunter for our cover design, Mr. Ginther and Mr. Burman for the great group and faculty pictures, Mrs. Hize for proofreading copy, and most of all Veleta Ulerio for her patience, time, and helpfulness.
